

LAHC Gets 16 New Teachers For Fall Term

Sixteen new instructors were added to the evening college staff to accommodate increased enrollment and new courses as well as faculty replacements for the fall semester, according to an announcement by Dr. Robert V. Bacon, assistant dean of evening division.

One new instructor, Pedro V. Aguirre, has joined the applied technology staff. He will instruct a course in chemical technology, glass manipulation. Aguirre lives in Wilmington and for the last 20 years has been in charge of chemical glass repair for Union Oil Co.

Five instructors have been added to the evening business education faculty. Monroe T. Smartt, San Pedro, is the new instructor in accounting and is a regular day instructor at Los Angeles City College. Patrick F. Koughan, Monterey Park, who manages his own public relations firm in Los Angeles, is assigned as the new instructor in principles of selling. Mrs. Johnel Swaim, Torrance, a graduate of USC, will instruct evening classes in advanced shorthand. Mrs. Lillian J. Uharriet, Palos Verdes Estates, a graduate of Los Angeles State college in business education, will instruct the evening college class in advanced typewriting. Mrs. Marilyn F. Dean, San Pedro, a graduate of the University of Michigan in business education, is the new instructor in secretarial intermediate shorthand.

THERE ARE three new instructors in art. Miss Verla Leonard from Long Beach, who holds a master's degree in art from Stanford, will instruct a new class in art for elementary teachers. Louis J. Heiner, Torrance, who has a master's degree from The California College of Arts and Crafts, will teach a new class in print making art. James E. Burk, Anaheim, a graduate of Pepperdine college with his master's degree in fine arts from the University of Southern California, will be the new instructor in crafts workshop, art.

In the humanities division, Henry R. Tirado, Palos Verdes Estates, who has a master's degree in Spanish from the University of Southern California, will instruct the evening classes in advanced Spanish.

Three instructors have been added to the math-physics division. James C. Marsh, Gardena, who has a master's degree in mathematics from the University of Miami, will instruct the intermediate algebra class. Robert C. Coursey, Torrance, who graduated in mathematics from Middlebury College, Vermont, will instruct the evening class in plane geometry. Ernest F. Joseph, Gardena, who is a graduate in engineering from Valley State College, and comes to Harbor College from ten years of employment with the city of Los Angeles at the Hyperion Sewage treatment plant, will instruct a class in industrial mathematics for sanitation majors.

THE SCIENCE division has added two new instructors. Elmer W. Grimes, Rolling Hills Estates, a graduate of the University of Southern California in zoology, will instruct the evening class in introduction to human anatomy. Frank R. Dair, San Pedro, who received his bachelor's degree in civil engineering from the University of Southern California, will instruct the course in fundamentals of sewage plant operation.

The social science division has added one instructor, Mondell Brazell, Rolling Hills Estates, who received his master's degree in psychology at USC, will instruct the evening course in personal and social adjustment.

Registration for evening division is by appointment. The last date to file an application for admission to the fall semester evening college is Sept. 1 for registration on Sept. 5 and 6 from 6 to 8 p.m. Applications for admission and registration permits are obtained at the college admissions office.

"A late registration period is not planned this year," advised Dr. Bacon.

"I wonder if Jimmy's losing interest... the last two times I've called him, his father beat him to the phone."

Happy Motoring!

Over LABOR DAY,
you'll want your car
to give you its best performance!

Here's how to make sure it does. Before you start your trip, stop for service under the Enco sign in your neighborhood.

Let your neighbor in an Enco uniform give it charted lubrication, check the tires (including the spare), the battery, the water. And if the oil needs changing (how long since you changed it?), he can drain the crankcase and refill with Enco Uniflo in a matter of minutes.

And then fill-'er-up! with Enco Extra gasoline. This famous gasoline will give your car an energy boost over every mile you drive—it contains an exclusive combination of additives that assures you smooth performance, and... users say... improved gasoline mileage.

Now you're ready to go. Drive safely and have a good time—and enjoy the performance of your car. Happy Motoring!®
