Mrs. Piech Installed President

Mrs. Henry J. Piech, wife of the Chief Recruiter-in-charge of the Navy Recruiting Office, 1520 Cravens, Torrance, was reinstated as president of the CPO Wives club of Long Beach at an installation held at the home of Mrs. Helen Kaukas.

Mrs. Piech is the first president of this new organization.

Conducting the installing was the president's husband, Henry Piech.

Other officers who will serve during the coming year are Mrs. Vicki Thiel, vice president; Mrs. Helen Kaukas, secretary; and Mrs. Donna Ross, treasurer.

The installation was an informal affair and was attended by husbands of the members and the club sponsor Mrs. Mary Murray.

Mrs. Josephine Arnold presented a flag to the club in memory of her husband who was a chief in the United States Navy.

Thailand Described

"A Visit to Thailand" was the interesting program presented by Mrs. Fred Lincoln, Sr., at the August meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church of Torrance.

Mrs. Lincoln told the CWF about her recent visit to fourteen South Asian countries, the religions of the people, and the missionary work being done in these countries.

Her beautiful colored movies showed many facets of the lives of the people of Thailand. There were many views of their ornate Buddhist temples, their mode of travel on the river, the interesting way the people live at the river's edge and make their purchases of food from small boats which row up to their porch which overhangs the water.

Mrs. Lincoln visited missionary friends in Thailand and a Women's College there which had been founded by her daughter-in-law's grandmother. She said the people were very friendly and happy to pose for her movies. The land is fertile and they are able to raise plenty of food for their people. She found most of the people dressed in Western dress. She was able to get some movies of

All women in the South Bay, Harbor and Peninsula areas wishing to enroll as members of the South Bay Chapter of Hadassah are invited to contact any one of the following officers: Mrs. Frank Goetz, Mrs. Gerson Jacobson, or Mrs. Abraham Janoff in Torrance; Mrs. Fay Baldwin, Mrs. Harry Hyman, or Mrs. Edward Lookman in Redondo Beach; Mrs. Leo Schleissner in Palos Verdes Estates; Mrs. Randolph C. Editor To Address Hadassah

An interesting afternoon has been planned for the first regular meeting of the season of South Bay Chapter of Hadassah, which will be held at the home of its President, Mrs. Gerson Jacobson, in Torrance, on Tuesday, Sept. 5, with John Moon, Managing Editor of the Daily Breeze, as guest speaker.

Inasmuch as the women of Hadassah are concerned with world affairs, as well as Hadassah activities, Mr. Moon will speak on his experience as host to a group of Russian editors during their recent visit to the United States, and will conduct an open discussion following his talk.

While the Chapter's Golden Jubilee Membership Drive was concluded with their receiving one of the awards presented at the celebration in the Santa Monica Auditorium, the enrollment of new members will continue throughout the year.

P T A ACTIVITIES

Harbor City

"Avenues of Understanding" was the theme presented by Mrs. Clarence Bramley, program chairman, for the Harbor City PTA. "Understanding our school, teaching methods, moral and spiritual values, our children, Founders day program, mental health and planning for the future" are topics to be discussed.

Mrs. Robert Rohl, president, presided when the Harbor City PTA executive board held its get-acquainted meeting and pot luck luncheon at Lomita Park recently.

Officers ratified to serve with officers already holding office were: Mmes. Jack Yuoka, upper room representative and international relations; Wallace Lindgren, recreation; Lawrence Barton, founders day; Donald Walker, sociability; Ake Ohlson, civil defense; Armen D. Hortlieb, co - membership; Robert Finlay, mental health; Bob Pearson, co-telephone; Alan Woodside, co-ways and means; Ralph Scriba, co-ways and means; Robert Davies, kitchen; William Belle R. films; and Mr. Francis Rush, teacher representative of school.

Mrs. Howard Mason, ways and means chairman, presented planned projects for the year. The first project is a teachers luncheon to welcome the teaching staff.

Narbonne

The program committee of the Narbonne High School PTA met recently to plan the programs for 1961-62. Mrs. C. L. Wilson, first vice president and program chairman, presided.

The theme chosen for 1961-62 was "Key to New Frontiers" and the first meeting will be held Oct. 17, at 7:30 p.m. This meeting will offer "Key to School Activities" which is in response to many requests and questions pertaining to school clubs, school activities, student government and "grad" parties.

Tuesday, Dec. 12, at 1:30 p.m. a holiday inspired program with the theme "Key to the Holiday Season" will be of great interest. A demonstration will be presented by Mrs. George Chipman on "Do it Yourself" preparations for holiday gifts and decor.

On Feb. 20, at 1:30 p.m. "Key to Fashions" will be the theme featuring a student fashion show. Founders Day will be commemorated with "Fashions of Yesterday and Today."

An evening meeting at 7:30 p.m., March 20 presents "Key to International Relations." This promises to be a memorable evening featuring the Foreign Exchange Students of the American Field Service.

"Key to Our School" will be the theme for April 10, at 7:30 p.m. The high school will hold "Open House" offering parents the opportunity to see the school and to meet the student teachers.

The year will close with "Key to School Education" on May 15, at 1:30 p.m. Vital information will be given on new graduation requirements.

Members of the program planning committee included Mrs. C. L. Wilson, chairman; Mrs. Evelyn Price, girls vice principal; Mr. Herbert C. Morey, principal; Mrs. Joseph

B. Butler, PTA president; and Mmes. David Goolsby, John R. Hill, Leland Van Buren and Marvin E. Fulton.

Jefferson

Board members of Jefferson PTA recently held an emergency meeting to elect a new president for the forthcoming year. Mrs. J. T. Jones, who presided over the meeting, announced that it was necessary for her to resign her position as president because she and her family are moving.

Gus Cochran, who has previously served Jefferson PTA as Newsletter chairman, was elected by vote of the officers to fill the vacancy.

Those present were: George Marich, principal; Gus Cochran, president-elect; Mmes. J. T. Jones, outgoing president; Leonard Ensminger, library chairman; James Kelly, corresponding secretary; Gus Cochran, ways and means chairman; Noah Waller, historian; Kenneth V. deer, program chairman; Donald Corsaro, parliamentarian; Robert McNamara, press chairman.

Altar Unit Will Meet

Nativity Altar Society will meet Tuesday evening, Sept. 5, at the parish hall.

A new vice president will be elected to replace Mrs. John Cherrie, who is moving to another parish, stated Mrs. Richard Lescoe, president.

Along with plans for the fall rummage sale, discussion will be held on plans to collect old jewelry, rosaries, etc. to be sent to missions.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Lawrence Jordan, October guild chairman, and Mmes. John Barth, Lyle Freckleton, William Hardesty, Vernon Ewing and Betty Ponsford.
