Pharmacist Gets National Office

Geraldine C. Vidovich, a Torrance pharmacist, has been elected women's vice president of the National Association of Catholic Alumni Clubs. Miss Vidovich served as vice president of the Harbor Catholic Alumni Club and has been active in the national CAC movement since its inception. She was elected the organization's vice president at a recent convention at Grand Teton National Park in Wyoming. Miss Vidovich will aid in administering an organization of 19 clubs that have nearly 5000 members throughout the United States. The national Catholic Alumni Club movement, which began in Southern California in 1957, offers a program of social, religious, cultural and community service activities to its members, single Catholics who are college graduates.
