... Ann Landers

(Continued From Page 13) working conditions are first rate. It's a great organization and the employees are treated extremely well by management. Yet I see people walk out of here with typewriters, adding machines, photographic equipment — and table lamps and potted plants from the reception room. They carry off framed paintings, hat-racks and just about anything that isn't nailed down.

Is there something I can do about this sort of turning in the names of the stealers? This I refuse to do. — I. C. PLENTY

Dear I. C. Plenty: Yes. You can write a signed letter to the management, detailing your shift and department and suggest that they post deputized guards at the exits. In this way employees can be stopped if they try to walk out with company property.

Dear Ann: A woman in our crowd took a trip to Europe (she said) and was away for two months. She came back looking 15 years younger. She said she had the most marvelous rest of her life. I'm sure she had her face lifted.

I've spent too many summers (and winters) in the sun and have many unwanted wrinkles. I've flirted with the idea of having plastic surgery but until now I was afraid of the results. Shall I ask her who did it or would she be insulted? — N

Dear N.: Ask her — but make certain no one else is present.

Confidential to SUSPICIOUS BEN: Me, too. She's trying to get on your good side, all right — the side of the wallet. Stop bragging about how "well off" you are and this may help discourage future gold-diggers.

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

New Colors, Lines, Shapes

Sparkling CDA Fashion Parade Slated Sept. 21

Bright, bright colors are a fall fashion note which will be stressed in the fashion show to be staged by Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, next Thursday, Sept. 21, at the new Nativity parish auditorium, Torrance.

A run-down of the brilliant new colors might be mistaken for roll-call at the United Nations, according to Mrs. Neta Mann, whose shop is providing the clothing, what with Egyptian orange, Morocco red, China blue, Killarney green and Turkish taupe. Everything from sportswear to formal gowns, the full gamut of apparel, will display the vivid new shades, along with basic grays and blacks.

Predominating the style field is the "blouson look," with the hemlines hiked even higher, Mrs. Mann says. Fur trim is used in collars and other ingenious ways, and Italian knits still hold sway in the fashion scene.

Members of the local C.D.A. court and their daughters will serve as models, including Mmes. J. W. Crew; Joseph Lucas; Robert Larson; George Abromavick; James Cemore; Laurence Derouin; Bob Rodina; Frank Zboyan; Richard Ban; John McVey; Marie Leininger; Diane Landerville; and Karen Lucas. Jean Klaesges will model pre-teen fashions.

Mrs. Robert Klaesges and Mrs. Harvey Lee, general chairmen, are busy tying loose ends together — decorations, prizes, programs, refreshments — so that everything will go smoothly the evening of this major ways and means event in the Court year. The committee chairmen assisting them are: Mmes. Peter O'Brien, models; Elles Cook, refreshments; Ralph Sullivan, programs; Victor E. Benstead and Donald Bryant, decorations. Also helping are Mmes. Richard Ban; Rodney Stetson; John Melville; Donald Schwab; Harold DeWan; Paul McDonald; Frank Zboyan; C. Mata; Lloyd Landerville; Ray Montenegro, Mrs. Donald Bryant will be commentator, with Mrs. Joseph Cemore, Grand Regent of Court St. Catherine, greeting all guests.
