

Assemblyman in TV Appearance

Charles Edward Chapel, Republican member of the Assembly, 46th Assembly District, California State Legislature, will be interviewed by Grant Holcomb on Station KNVT-TV, Channel 2, on his show called "The Los Angeles Report," on Saturday from 2 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. on his new book, "The Guns of the Old West." The interview is not confined to the book.

Chapel will exhibit and explain briefly the loading and firing of pistols and revolvers used in the Revolutionary War, the Civil War, and in the gun fights of the Old West. In addition, he will discuss with Grant Holcomb some colorful incidents of the Old West and non-partisan aspects of government.

This interview is not based on a script and is an entirely unrehearsed, spontaneous, informal discussion.

Chapel Theatre Enjoys Success in New Locale

The Chapel Theatre, now located in Torrance, enjoyed the thrill of all theaters in displaying the coveted S.R.O. (Standing Room Only) sign for almost every performance during their first two weekend performances.

Gay, colorful audiences have thrilled to the capers of the four Madwomen and their cohorts, as they romp through Jean Giraudoux's capricious fantasy comedy — "The Madwomen of Chaillot."

Those who viewed this unusual play, and the outstanding performances of each and everyone in the cast, agree that everyone must see it, or miss a very unusual experience.

JUST BEING in this theater is a thrill in itself, when you learn the story of all the back-breaking toil that went into converting this building into the quaint theater that it is. It is interesting to note that The Chapel Theatre is the first legitimate drama theater in the Welteria area and, from the swarm of ticket-seekers, it appears that Torrance will boast possessing a live drama theater always — in the Chapel Theatre.

Headed by Margaret Middleton, the Madwoman of Chaillot, the main characters consist of: Thelma Ledwidge, Adrienne Held, and Marion Lepper as the other madwomen; Al Schneider, Prospector; Larry Goebel, President; Warren Lavender, Rappicker; Jim Phillips, Deaf-mute; Kathleen Briggs, Irma; plus many more.

THE LAST two weekend performances will be given Sept. 22 to 24 and Oct. 6 to 8. Reservations may be made by calling the box office, FR 8-9017 or stopping at the ticket office in the Chapel Theatre located at 4164 Pacific Coast Hwy.

Further evidence of the continued activity of the theater is the fact that the group is already under way in its next production, "Green Grow the Lilacs." Although five of the major roles have been filled, several substantial roles remain to be assigned. Anyone who is interested in becoming part of a "fun group" in this new production, is invited to attend the next tryout session on Sunday at 1 p.m. Director Harry Lovejoy is in charge, with musical numbers staged by James Brittain.

The Chapel Theatre is open every day except Monday holding "open house" for the public, with hosts and hostesses available as guides, taking guests on tours through the theater building, thus, enabling our citizens to become familiar with the newest edition of entertainment to the city of Torrance. All are welcome.
