FRANCIS M. TUTTLE

Funeral services for Francis Mellen Tuttle, 1947 Reynosa Drive, will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the A. M. Gamby Mortuary Chapel in Lomita. The Rev. Eldon Durham of the Lomita Presbyterian Church will officiate.

Mr. Tuttle, a guard at Doak Aircraft Co. here for several years before his retirement, died suddenly at his home Wednesday. He was born in Freeport, Maine, on Oct. 28, 1894, and had resided in Torrance for nearly 18 years.

A DECORATED veteran of World War I, Mr. Tuttle was active in many veterans organizations. He was the holder of the Distinguished Service Cross and the French Croix de Guerre for his achievements in France during the war. He served from May, 1917, until August, 1919, much of it overseas.

He was a charter member of the Torrance Barracks, Veterans of World War I; a member of the Disabled American Veterans, and the Legion of Valor. He also belonged to the American Legion, Yankee Division Veterans Assn., and the Redmen.

Mr. Tuttle is survived by his widow, Ethel, and a son, Howard, who is enroute home from his Army post in Germany for Tuesday's services.

Burial will be in Green Hills Memorial Park.

Local Man Gets Douglas Manager Job

Hubert K. Gagos of 5406 Calle De Ricardo has been appointed public relations manager for the aircraft division of Douglas Aircraft Co. in Long Beach.

He will assume his duties at the Long Beach plant shortly after Oct. 1. Gagos, a Stanford University graduate, was a newspaper, radio and press association writer and editor prior to joining the Douglas public relations staff in 1946.

In his new position, he will direct public relations activities pertaining to all of the Douglas manned aircraft and related projects.

Cub Pack Sets Registration

Cub Pack 287 will hold its annual re-registration meeting on Wednesday evening at Towers Elementary School Cafeteria. All boys between the ages of 8 and 11 are invited to join. They are also encouraged to bring their parents. Registration fee for each Cub Scout is 50 cents. Insurance for Cub members covering participation in cubbing will be $1.

A program for active participation in Scouting activities is planned for both Cub members and adults during the forthcoming year. An interesting and beneficial pastime, Scouting will aid materially in helping the boy meet the demands of the community in the future.

Pack meetings will be held every first Wednesday of the month beginning in October in the Towers Elementary School Cafeteria from 7:30 until 9:30 o'clock. Den meetings are held at the Den Mothers homes or at other convenient locations each Wednesday afternoon after school hours.

CITY OFFICIALS have been told that any royalties accruing from the operation will go to the state and that the city can have no claim to such payments. The city could, however, purchase dredged up sand to rehabilitate the beach area, it is stated.

LAHC Educator At Meeting for Mental Health

Dr. Louise Snyder Johnson of the Dept. of Psychology at Harbor College traveled to San Diego this week to participate in the fourth annual meeting of the California Assn. for Mental Health.

A member of the board of directors of the state association, the local educator is also president of the Long Beach Mental Health Assn. At the convention she will participate in meetings on the theme "Action for Mental Health." Delegates will also visit the San Diego Center, California's first mental health day treatment center.

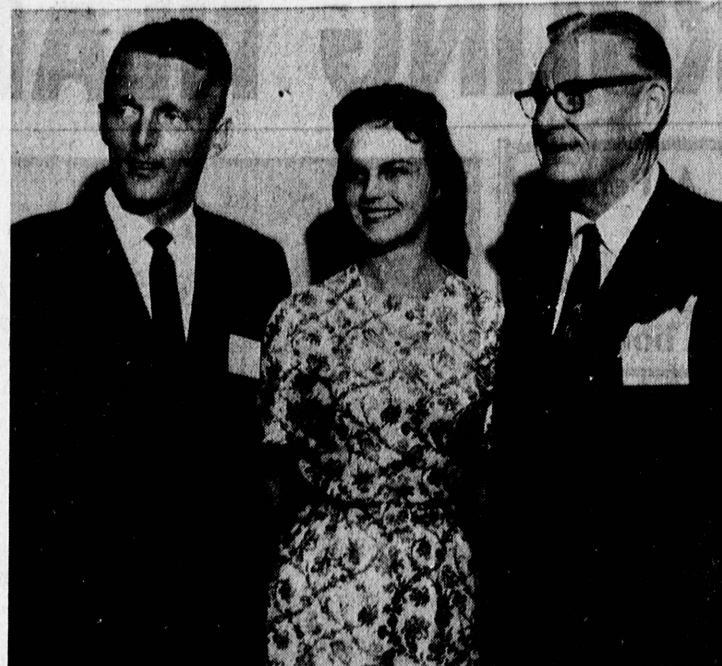

Dr. Johnson this week was also appointed to a committee to formulate a statement of policy for the Los Angeles City Schools in the area of mental health. Purpose of the committee will be to formulate a statement defining mental health and mental health procedures in the Los Angeles City Schools, to list present activities fostering mental health, and to consider possible needs for further activity in this field.

A member of the Harbor College faculty since 1957, Dr. Johnson holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Arizona, a master's degree from Stanford and a Ph.D. from New York University. She is also a certified psychologist and served previously as a director of the Board of Mental Health in Philadelphia.
