

our new baby

gets more attention even than the television set. He is always crying or eating, except when he's sleeping, which he does only in the daytime. He doesn't have

Whitaker Wins Speech Contest

A humorous speech contest featured a recent meeting of South Bay Toastmasters Club 280 held at the Redondo Beach Elks Club.

Jack Whitaker of Torrance, vinner by popular acclaim, will represent South Bay 280 in the Area 5 Humorous Speech contest to be held next month. Second place honors went to Thomas Eadje of Hollywood Riviera.

The impromptu speech pro-Payne, of Torrance, was won by James McDonald, Manhattan Beach.

The next meeting of the club will feature a program requir-ing speakers to deliver their speeches from the center of the floor without the usual comforting support of a po-dium, table or chair.

Changes in Army, Re-enlistment Policy Reported

Dept. of the Army announced this week that restrictions on re-enlistment have been lifted for some servicement who have been separated from the Army for more than 90 days.

for more than 90 days. Sgts. Donald E. Fleming and Elgin C. Elliott of the Torrance Army Recruiting Station, have received instructions for enlist-ment of qualified former en-listed members of the Regular Army who were last separated in pay grades E-3 (PFC) through E-7 (Master Sergeant) in their old pay grade provid-ing they re-enlist within 24 months of discharge, have a Military Occupational Specialty (MOS) listed as shortage, and enlistment is approved by Dept. of the Army. Those re-enlisting between Dept. of the Army. Those re-enlisting between 24 and 36 months of discharge in grade E-5 (Sergeant) through E-7 (Master Seargeant) and holding a shortage MOS may be re-enlisted in the Regular Army one grade lower than grade held at time of last sep-aration, upon approval of Dept. of Army. Prior Army servicemen de-siring additional information contact Sgts. Fleming or Ellioti at 1319½ Sartori Ave., or phone FA 8-7069 for an ap-pointment.

Bethlehem Plant Wins Safety Nod

Bethlehem Steel Co. yesterbethienem Steel Co. yester-day announced that its Tor-rance Fabricating Works tied for first place with five other of the company's fabricating works in their division in the National Safety Council's an-nual contest.

National Sheey Councils and nual contest. Tied with the Torrance works in the group C, heavy fabricating classification, were the works located in Seattle, Buffalo, Dunellen, N.J., and Jacksonville, Fla. The awards were based on a frequency rate of injury-free man-hours, of exposure of at least 15 per cent below their average for the past three years and below the average for the group. Bethelhem's South San Fran-cisco Works tied with three others of the company's opera-tions for first place in Group E, light fabricating. The South San Francisco facility also re-ceived a Certificate of Achieve-ment.

any teeth or much hair and can't talk, and you have to hold his head or it will roll off. It's hard to see why anybody likes him. It's easy to see why everybody likes the Torrance Herald. It doesn't have hair or teeth, either, but it's full of news and features that bring pleasure to the whole family (except for new babies—they don't even care). That's why more families in Greater Torrance read the Herald than any other newspaper. And no wonder, for the Herald is out front by far in circulation (it provides the only audited home delivery solid coverage of the Greater Torrance area). You can count on more from the Herald because more goes into the Herald!

It was also announced that Bethlehem's Lackawanna, N.Y., plant won first place in the 1960-61 metals section, Group 1960-61 metals section, Group A, steel mills division. This is the 18th time in 19 years that a Bethlehem steel plant has taken first honors in the con-test and the second time for the Lackawanna plant. The pre-vious occasion was in 1955-55. The company routed that The company reported that 13 of its operations placed first in their various classes, three placed second, and one placed third. Seven operations re-ceived certificates of achieve-ment.

Dancers to Perform

Several hundred folk dan-cers are scheduled to perform today in the parking lot of a restaurant at 1700 S. Pacific Coast Hwy. The event, free to the public, is scheduled for 1 p.m.