'Mike' Sargent in Top DeMolay Office

Installation of new officers for the Torrance Chapter, Order of DeMolay Saturday evening saw Milton H. "Mike" Sargent succeeding to the master counselor's chair to succeed Robert Pulliam.

Seated in ceremonies held at the Torrance Masonic Lodge, Sargent will have Charles Myers as his senior counselor and Bruce Norman as junior counselor.

INSTALLING officer was Charles Johnson, past master counselor of the chapter. Assisting were Jim Grabel, master counselor of Inglewood; Jerry Williams; Robert Halliwell, past master counselor of Torrance; Wayne Croft, and Phillip Warde another past master counselor of Torrance.

The Rev. Hugh R. Percy, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, opened ceremonies with the invocation, and George Powell, master of the Torrance Masonic Lodge, was master of ceremonies.

Among visitors honoring the chapter were James P. Knipfel, assistant district supervisor; members of the advisory council, and officers and members of fraternal organizations in the area.

MEMBERS OF the Mothers Circle were hostesses throughout the evening which included a reception and a dance following the installation.

Larry Arrasmith and John Gable served as ushers while usherettes were Patty Woodman, honored queen of Job's Daughters Bethel No. 50 of Torrance; Judy Sherwood, her senior princess, and Patty Falor, her junior princess.

Chapter Dad Jack Mann gave the welcoming address.

Documentary Film Added By Phone Co.

"Opportunities Unlimited," a documentary about the physically handicapped and how they find useful and productive ways of life through rehabilitation, training, and job placement in American business and industry, has been added to the General Telephone's extensive film library, according to J. M. White, Palos Verdes district manager.

The announcement was made in light of the fact that National Employ the Handicapped Week is being observed this week.

This film and many others are available to civic groups, service clubs, schools, and similar organizations without charge by writing or calling the nearest district office of the General Telephone Co.

The firm's film library contains nearly 250 separate titles on a wide variety of subjects. Most of the titles are listed in a 39-page booklet published by General Telephone and issued free upon request.

Other appointive officers installed included James Pickle, standard bearer; Charles Johnson, orator; Allen Butler, sentinel; Joseph Reeve Jr., first preceptor; Richard Rayls, second preceptor; Robert Engelbrecht, third preceptor; Gerald Mann, fourth preceptor; Keith Kermeier, fifth preceptor; Glenn Child, sixth preceptor, and Gary L. Brugman, seventh preceptor.

MUSIC FOR the ceremony was presented by vocalist Charlotte Percy. Mrs. Al Anderson accompanied her at the piano. Rick Langdon, member of the Garden Grove Chapter, Order of DeMolay, gave the flower talk.
