Poulsons Give Formula For Long Wedded Bliss

By DARRELL MADDOX

"Truthfulness between husband and wife is the most important thing for young married couples," says Mrs. Charles Poulson of 3926 W. 184th St. who recently observed her 50th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Poulson were feted on their golden wedding anniversary with a party attended by about 30 friends and relatives.

"Now I'm looking forward to our 75th anniversary, if the good Lord is willing to let us live that long," Mrs. Poulson said. She is a member of the Degree of Honor Lodge, a fraternal insurance organization. Her husband is a retired commercial printer.

"If I had it all to do over again there is nothing I'd do different," Poulson said. Mrs. Poulson, (Amelia) added "We didn't always give our children as much as we'd like to have," but her daughter, Mrs. Willard Geiersback of 3926 W. 184th St. said, "I think we're better now after not having many things as children and things we have now are appreciated."

Poulson recalls the early days of their married life when he earned $14 a week. "When my husband was working I helped in the home as much as I could. They didn't believe in wives working then," Mrs. Poulson said.

The Poulsons were married in St. Louis Mo., on Sept. 27, 1911, and moved to Chicago in 1914. They lived in Chicago until 1958 when Poulson retired and they moved to Torrance.

Besides their daughter, Mrs. Geiersback, the couple have one son, Carl, who is married and living in Chicago.
