

EC Coach Suffers Relapse

Having suffered a relapse at noon Wednesday, Coach Norm Verry of El Camino College was still reported in a precarious condition at St. Vincent's Hospital, Los Angeles, yesterday.

"The coach is on the borderline of being in critical condition," Dr. Theodore Kurze, neurosurgeon in attendance of the college instructor, reported yesterday. "He was doing exceedingly well until noon Wednesday," the physician observed.

Coach Verry was stricken by a brain hemorrhage while vacationing at Lake Tahoe several years ago. A second attack occurred on Sept. 23, while the popular gridiron figure was accompanying his Warrior football team to Boise, Idaho, for a game there.

The coach was hospitalized at Washo Medical Center for a week, following an emergency landing of the chartered flight in Reno, Nev. Preliminary X-rays were taken this week, following the patient's return by air ambulance Saturday and his admission to St. Vincent's Hospital in Los Angeles.

Dr. Kurze said that continued diagnostic studies will be necessary before surgery can be considered. A continuation of these studies was scheduled to occur Friday, prior to the relapse.

Condition of the former Trojan All-American since the third attack Wednesday has remained unchanged. Hospital reports indicate that speech has been affected and that some paralysis is evident. Similar reactions followed the Reno hemorrhage.

The doctor said the the origin of the source of bleeding has remained obscure, although it is likely that a blood vessel defect exists at the base of the brain. This, he said, is the most common cause of hemorrhages of the type suffered by the physical education instructor.

Dr. Kurze, affiliated with the medical department of the University of Southern California, is visiting the popular coach three times daily.

Tartars Exterminates Cardinals, 43 to 21

Although Lawndale was playing its first year with seniors and was hoping for its strongest teams, Torrance High made mincemeat of the Cardinals Friday night, galloping to a 43 to 21 victory on the Tartar gridiron.

Lawndale was completely snowed under from the first as THS went into the half with a 24 to 0 lead.

John Cambon led the rout, scoring once personally and throwing two additional touchdowns passes to left end and returning letterman Bob Clark.

Pop Warner Grid Teams Play Today

Led by Terry Tiedeman's two scoring romps, the Torrance Chargers from the Mid-Get Division of the Pop Warner League walloped the Venice Whites, 25 to 6.

Tiedeman scored on a 47-yard end run and a one-yard plunge. The other Torrance scores came on a four-yard line plunge by Bill Perez and a one-yard thrust by Steve Jasper. Perez scored the only PAT for Torrance.

The only White touchdown came on Bob Eyer's 20-yard end run.

THE VIKINGS, a Pee-wee Division squad, journeyed to San Gabriel and dumped the South Gabriel Rebels, 19 to 0. Dan Pritchett started the scoring by going around end for five yards in the first quarter. Ronald Stone converted.

Games today will find the Vikings meeting the Chargers at Gardena; the Rainbows and Bolts at the home field, North Torrance High School; the Oilers and Steelers travel to Palos Verdes to engage the Lancers and Crusaders; and the Blue Devils battle the Gardena Meteors in Gardena.

Torrance rammed across one TD in the first period and tallied 18 more points in the second quarter. Going blank after halftime, the Tartars came on with a bang in the final period, booming home 19 points.

It was the first Pioneer League game for both teams this season.

THIS COACH Irv Kasten was disappointed in the number of penalties his eleven drew. He said the penalties totaled over 200 yards and would have cost his team the contest in a close game.

Kasten was pleased with his defensive line and the way Torrance was passing more in this game than usual.

Joe Redmon, tackle, and Allen Billings at halfback will return to action next for the Tartars against Beverly Hills.

Saxon Gridders Edge Mustangs In Bay Opener

Opening the Bay League season in successful style, the North High gridders nudged Mira Costa, 20 to 13 Friday afternoon on the Mustang gridiron.

Joe Castorena, Skip Mooney and Dave Gall each scored once for the Saxons. Rich Parker booted two extra points for the victors.

North Torrance rammed across a single tally in each of the first three quarters to gain the victory. Larry Cox at quarterback and Jim Choorham, fullback were responsible for the only two Michol scores.

The Saxons are unbeaten after two games, they beat Warrent 19 to 12, and will meet their largest hurdle so far in undefeated Inglewood this Friday.

Corsairs Nudge Harbor On Rand Carter Aerials

Shocking Harbor College grabbed a 13-point first-quarter lead, but could not hold it as Santa Monica took to the air to come away with a thread-thin 20 to 13 victory over the Seahawk gridders Friday night.

Quarterback Rand Carter filled the air with passes, completing 22 of 37 tosses and one touchdown to lead the Corsairs to their surprisingly difficult win over the Hawks, perennial Metropolitan Conference door-mat.

It was the opening conference game for both college and the loss for Harbor came on the heels of two straight practice victories. HJC was winless last year and surprised the experts by romping over San Bernardino, 30 to 25 and Citrus 22 to 0.

SANTA MONICA finished in third place in the Metro title chase last year, but had their hands full with the surging Seahawks who started off like a ball-of-fire but could not continue the screaming pace.

Tom Martin hauled in a 10-yard pass from Jim Frazier to start the Harbor scoring in the first quarter. Charles Cunningham pulled in a one-yard toss from Frazier to tally the final Harbor score. Sam Wick converted.

SANTA MONICA then started to roll as Mark Augustine bulled for six on a one-yard plunge. Jerry Heller then finished off the second period TD parade by going over on a 17-yard run. Carter ran over the PAT.

In the third quarter, Randy Meadows grabbed an 18-yard toss from Carter to ice the game for the Corsairs.

Harbor will then be searching for its first Metro victory in two years Friday when it travels to East Los Angeles to battle the Huskies.

WINSLOW HERO

Sentinels Withstand Last Spartan Rally

By JIM VAUGHAN

Inglewood withstood a belated second half rally by South High to edge the Spartans, 25-18, as both teams made their Bay League debut Friday night. Relying on Troy Winslow's golden arm, the Sentinels from Inglewood struck paydirt through the air four different times, three in the first half, as their touchdown aeriels proved too much for the grounded Spartans.

South's defensive line proved to be more than adequate in containing the Sentinel ground game, as the Spartan forward wall rose to the occasion time and again. The Spartan backfield, led by Harvey Siegal, moved the ball well enough against the vaunted Inglewood defenders to manage three tallies, two of them coming in the second half. But no defensive measures against Winslow and Co. proved effective, there in lying the reason for the Inglewood triumph.

Perhaps the necessary ingredients for the Bay League crown are in Troy Winslow's magic touch; no doubt the weary Spartan warriors will vouch for that. Winslow took to the air only when he had to, just four times did he fade to throw. But here Sparta met their downfall, as Winslow personally took charge, completing all four passes for touchdowns, before equally amazed South and Inglewood fans.

With four minutes left in the first quarter, South climaxed a 70-yard drive with Phil Fish scoring from the Inglewood 8-yard line. But the Sentinels retaliated on the next kickoff, driving to the Spartan's 10, only to lose the ball on a fumble as the quarter ended, South ahead, 6-0.

Inglewood stopped South in the second quarter as Winslow hit Jim Skaff with a 15-yard touchdown pass to start the ball rolling for the Sentinels. This tied it up, 6-6, as Winslow's kick was wide right.

From his 40-yard line, Winslow threw to Dave Kaiser on the South 15-yard line, as the glue-fingered end went over standing up with 3:25 left in the first half. Winslow's kick was good, putting Inglewood on top, 13-6.

The Sentinels added insult to injury when, with just 1:18 remaining, Winslow took just nine seconds to rifle another aerial bomb to Kaiser, this one good for 58 yards. This was the identical play Inglewood used only two minutes earlier for their second six point tally. Winslow's placement was wide right, leaving Inglewood on top, 19-6 at the end of the half.

After recovering from the Sentinel's first half assault, the Spartan's came on strong to score with only 4:30 gone in the second half, as Garrison ram-bled 23 yards around end for the score. Now Inglewood's lead was down to 19-12 as South's superior line play began to take its effect.

But Troy Winslow was not to be denied, connecting a gain with Kaiser on a 25-yard pass play for the Inglewood gunner's fourth and final touchdown toss. Now down 25-12, South's hopes began to look dim.

However, the Sentinels had not seen the last of the Spartans, as Harvey Siegal, on a tremendous second effort, plowed over from the three to send South even closer by a score of 25-18. But the writing was on the wall, Winslow had done the damage, and South went down at the hands of the Sentinels, 25-18.

Inglewood head coach Bill Peters had nothing but praise for South's line play.

"We couldn't stop their line, they were hungry and wanted to hit. Our boys turned in fine game, they certainly deserved to win, but no credit can be taken from South. This game went right down to the wire, with South forcing and pressing us to the gun."

WHERE IS HE? . . . Santa Monica City College quarterback Rand Carter looks for his receiver as Harbor College linemen pour in on him. Carter led the Buccaneers to a 20 to 13 win over the previously undefeated Seahawks. He completed 22 of 37 aerial bombs in the victory.
