

Serra Mothers Present 'Caliope Capers' Oct. 17

In presenting its seventh annual fashion show, "Caliope Capers," at the Serra High School auditorium, 14830 S. Van Ness Ave., Gardena, on Oct. 17, the members of Serra Mothers Club have enlisted the help of teenage sisters of Serra students in showing fashions for the younger set. Three attractive young ladies who have agreed to serve as models are Peggy Clark, Bishop Montgomery High School; Susan Henry, St. Michaels; and Jo Duarte, St. Marys Academy.

A social hour starting at 7 p.m. will precede the raising of the curtain at 8 on the fashion parade to be narrated by Rosemary Peterson. A special program of entertainment has been prepared by Mrs. George Neeland.

The major social event of the Serra Mothers Club calendar, this year's show will raise funds for the addition of a language "laboratory" to the school's facilities. Opened ten years ago by the Marianist order of priests and brothers, Serra has a present enrollment of more than 650 boys, drawn from a dozen communities in the southwest section of the county. Mrs. R. T. Grace is general chairman of the show, assisted by Mmes. Jack Williams, social patrons; Albert Valdez, ticket sales; H. L. Burks, gift opportunities; Leo Batistella, door prizes; E. J. Regalado, advertising; Joseph Briggs and Jack Sullivan, centerpieces; Douglas Maillard and Julius Majors, cocktail hour; Arthur Mitz, souvenirs; Andrew Rubly and Mario Nicoletti, decorations; J. A. Money, publicity; Stanley Rymysa and Jack Distarce, hostesses; L. M. Moser, models; George Schmedeke, clothes coordination; J. P. Warhol, table favors; C. I. Swart and H. R. Haslom, wardrobe; L. M. Moser, treasurer; Kenneth Cahalane, secretary; and Mel Delperdang, boys models.

Volunteers Invite Public To Meeting

Volunteers of the Harbor General Hospital will hold their first fall meeting on Oct. 19, at 12:30 in the hospital auditorium. This is an open meeting and the public is invited.

Mrs. Rollin Ring, president, will conduct the business meeting and introduce new members. The hospital uniform emblem will be presented to members who have served 25 hours or more. Mrs. Evert Allen, program chairman, announces the film, "Operation Abolition" will be shown and narrated by Officer Glen Boyce. Following a community sing, Mrs. Henry Shapter, hospitality chairman, will serve cookies and coffee.

Benefit Set For Saturday

"An Oriental Fantasy" is the theme of the Kappa Delta sorority's benefit and fashion show to be held in the Embassy Room of the Ambassador Hotel Saturday, Oct. 12, at 12:30.

Proceeds will be used to combat muscular dystrophy. Wendell Corey of TV fame will serve as master of ceremonies.

South Bay Alumnae take an active part in these annual benefits. Mrs. Loyd D. Carr, Rolling Hills, is chairman of seating and reservations and Miss Helen Erne, Redondo, president of the Southern Council of Kappa Delta, assisted in planning and preparations.

Birthday Event

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard H. Radford, 3473 Maricopa, celebrated Mrs. Radford's birthday last weekend by having dinner at the Carolina Pines and enjoying the show in the Geisha room.
