

Lady Lions Plan Events

North Torrance Lioness club accepted the invitation from their husbands to attend a "Ladies Night" on Oct. 24, at their October business meeting held at a Torrance restaurant.

Mrs. Patricia Perez, president, conducted the meeting. Plans were also completed for a Halloween party on Oct. 28 at the home of Mrs. Nelson Cullum.

November business meeting will be held at the Plush Horse restaurant.

40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour, Jr., 1610 Amapola, long-time residents of Torrance, celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary last Friday. On Friday evening they were guests of honor at a dinner party at Marineland given by their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Moyer and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour, III.

Pupils Are Presented In Fall Recital

Performing before a large and enthusiastic audience, pupils from the studio of Charles and Gertrude Lumsden, South Bay teachers of piano, voice and organ, presented their first recital of the fall season on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 1, in the Women's Clubhouse, Redondo Beach. This group, ranging in age from 6 to 14 years, were from Torrance, Hollywood, Redondo Beach, Wilmington, Comita, Gardena and Los Angeles.

Presenting piano compositions by Richter, Schaum, Eckstein, Weybright and Rebe were: John Busby, Anne Landry, Yvonne Heyning, Charlene Sugiyama, Rachel Barber, Judy Briley, Jeff Schult and John Baxter.

Vocal numbers from "Pinochio" and the musical "Carnival" were presented by 12-year-old Jean Marie Yoho.

Piano duet arrangements of the old English song "John Peel" and the Scotch song "Over the Sea to Skye" were played by Jeff and Karen Schult.

Compositions of composers Floren, Fucik, Mainville and Wildman were presented by pianists Glenn Penner, Mary Busby, Rosemarie Landry and Craig Robinson. The composers Mozart, Clementi, Diabelli, Kuhlau, Beethoven, Schubert, Moszkowski and Tchaikowsky, including several Sonatina and Sonata numbers, were represented by the following young pianists: Franklin Blount, Susan Brisson, Linda Lopez, Karen Schult, Bruce Stackhouse and Kay Fuller.

Stork Shower

Mrs. R. V. Russell entertained at a baby shower last Sunday evening complimenting Mrs. Robert McElroy of Harbor City at her home, 2726 Gramercy Ave.

A blue and pink color theme was used by the hostess. Several games were played after which Mrs. McElroy was presented a decorated bassinet filled with baby gifts.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Peggy McElroy, served a pink and blue decorated cake with other refreshments. Sixteen guests attended the party.

REMINISCING... Getting cues straight for next Thursday's fall fashion show at the parish hall of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church are Mrs. Keith Enger and Leslie Ann Hall, two of the models who will display fashions in a show sponsored by the St. Theresa and St. Mary Magdalene Guild of the church. ## Talk, Film Slated Oct. 16

Members and guests of Torrance Cooperative Nursery School will attend a lecture and film program at the school on Monday, Oct. 16, at 8:30 p.m.

Heading the program will be a talk entitled "Ages and Stages" by Mrs. Miriam Kaye, director of the school. Of related interest to the evening's topic will be two films on pre-schoolers: "Individual Differences" and "Preface to a Life." The public is invited to attend the program.

Mrs. Kaye, who is a graduate of Cornell University, has a background in home economics, pre-school and adult education, and was formerly director of a nursery school in New Jersey. She most recently lectured on Parent Education in the adult education program of the Los Angeles City School System on the pre-school and elementary school-aged child.

Torrance Nursery School is a non-profit, non-sectarian cooperative located near Hawthorne Blvd. and 182nd St. in Torrance. For further information call Mrs. Charles Black.

Guilds To Present Style Show

A style show featuring "Fashions for reminiscing" will be presented at the parish hall of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church on Thursday evening, Oct. 19, beginning at 8, it was reported here this week.

The show, sponsored by members of St. Theresa and St. Mary Magdalene Guilds of the church, will present models displaying a range of fashions from children's wear to wedding gowns and bridal ensembles.

In addition to the showing of latest fall styles — mixed with a selection of styles from fashions of years gone by — the sponsors of the show will offer prizes throughout the evening and have announced plans to serve refreshments.

Tickets for the affair are now on sale through members of the sponsoring organizations.

City of Hope Rummage Sale Slated Oct. 14

Torrance Chapter, City of Hope will hold a rummage sale Saturday, Oct. 14, at 1338 El Prado, in downtown Torrance. Sale hours will be 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Clothing, adult and children, household items, costume jewelry, books and miscellaneous items will be offered, according to Mrs. Frank Sciarrotta, chairman.

All proceeds earned by the Torrance Chapter are transmitted directly to the free non-sectarian City of Hope National Medical Center at Duarte, Calif., to aid in the fight against such catastrophic diseases as leukemia, tuberculosis and cancer.

Dinner Party

Torrance Knights of Columbus held a pot luck dinner last Saturday evening at the home of Grand Knight and Mrs. James Neary, 21140 Dalton Ave. This was the first social event for the new officers.

Attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Edwin Abbott, Charles Butterfield, Joseph Cernore, Peter Crotty, Gordon Hicks, Dick Joosten, Harvey Lee, Rod Murphy, Frank Paluch, Harold Pope and Ralph Suckey.

Fetes Mother

Mrs. Paul James Taylor of Torrance was hostess at a birthday dinner at the Three Lions restaurant in honor of her mother, Mrs. Joel Robbins. Also at the festive occasion were Mr. Joel Robbins and Miss Janet Brown.

Birthday Party

Joseph Guerrero of Gardena entertained at a birthday party dinner at the Three Lions restaurant for his wife, Mary. Guests attending included Mr. and Mrs. Tony Greco and Mr. and Mrs. John Warhal.
