store for 10 days and take a vacation. What good is success if it makes a prisoner of you? If Annie refuses tell him you're going alone and that you'll send him postcards. Then do it.

Dear Ann Landers: Our sister has always been a strong individualist. She has ridiculed conventionalism all of her life and has brought up her daughters the same way.

Please understand that we are not sitting in judgment. All we want is advice on a pressing problem. This sister's oldest daughter (now 18) is pregnant with her second out-of-wedlock child in two years. There is no father in sight. The mother has invited us to a baby shower next week. She said "Lydia is in her sixth month and she needs clothing for the baby."

Our husbands say a baby under these conditions is a mockery and we should not go. What do you say?—SISTERS

Dear Sisters: A baby shower is designed to honor a girl who is anticipating a happy event. In this case I see nothing to celebrate nor anyone to be honored. Send a gift of clothing for the baby but stay home.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Copyright 1961, Field Enterprises, Inc. The girl has written a book. The girl is Ann Landers. The Publisher is Prentice-Hall. The book is called "Since You Ask Me." Your book store has it.
