May Co. Jamboree Due In Shrine Aud. Saturday

The giant May Co. Jamboree, a show that Scouts look forward to all year, will be held Saturday at the Shrine Auditorium on Jefferson and Royal Streets.

A morning show at 9 will be strictly for Cubs. In the afternoon Boy Scouts and Explorers will be guests of the May Co. at the same show, which starts at 1.

THE FREE SHOW will include favorite TV, radio and recording stars, vaudeville acts, Jerry Rosen and the Shrine Orchestra, the 3rd Marine Aircraft Wing Band from the El Toro Marine Air Station, and inspirational opening and closing ceremonies.

Clem Glass will return as master of ceremonies, with Bob Mitchell at the Shrine organ. Free tickets may be secured at all May Co. stores now, at the Trading Posts, or boys' departments. The supply will be distributed until exhausted on a first-come, first-served basis.

UNIT LEADERS or den mothers may pick up their tickets by presenting registration cards of their boys. Individual Cubs, Scouts, and Explorers may pick up their tickets by presenting their own Scout registration cards.

Tickets are available at the following May Co. stores:

Downtown: 8th and Broadway; Wilshire: Wilshire at Fairfax; Crenshaw: Santa Barbara at Crenshaw; South Bay: Hawthorne Boulevard at 174th Street; Lakewood: 5100 Lakewood Blvd.; San Fernando Valley: Laurel Canyon at Oxnard; Eastland: Garvey Boulevard at Citrus.

Bridge Class Starts Nov. 2

Beginning bridge classes will start Nov. 2 at the YWCA, according to Bob Christie, director of the Torrance Bridge Club.

The class will consist of 10 lessons with one hour of lecture and one hour of supervised play. Printed material on each afternoon's lecture will be available, Christie said.

Additional information may be obtained by telephoning the YWCA at FA 0-2255.

Glen Aycock, who was graduated from South High School in 1960, has enrolled for the fall semester at California Baptist College at Riverside.

He is a freshman at the college, working toward the bachelor of arts degree, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Aycock, 24125 Walnut St., Lomita.

The Bird of Paradise plant is a wonderful choice for cool-season color — indoors where winters are severe, out in the open wherever mild winter temperatures prevail. Give it sun or part shade, the shade increasing as you move inland from the coast. And be sure to plant it no deeper than it was in the nursery can. Frequent feeding, once the plants are established, will produce taller blooms and more of them.
