

Auxiliary Plans Card Benefit

Harbor View Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Assn. will sponsor a card party on Saturday evening, Oct. 21, to benefit the "Operation Handclasp." Cup of Cold Water Ministry. The party will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. William Davis, 942 W. 10th St., San Pedro.

Reservations may be made with Mmes. Davis, Claude Fowler, Emily Cofield, Tava Miekley or Harry Setzer of Torrance.

Democrats Meet

Mr. and Mrs. David Lyman were hosts to the Democratic Club, Inc. at their home, 1305 Teri Ave. on Thursday evening.

During the business session plans for their tea honoring Alan Cranston, state controller, on Oct. 27 were made and the new Democratic Women's Society was organized.

Any Democrat in the area interested in joining the group may contact the Lyman.

Rev. McNulty Paid Tribute To Parents

Approximately 250 members of the Mothers Dept. gathered in the library of the Bishop Montgomery High School for the first meeting of the year.

A farewell address was given by Father McNulty, who was the first principal at Bishop Montgomery High School. He cited many of the works which had been accomplished under his five year tenure. The first graduating class of the school was awarded ten qualified state scholarships and several additional scholarships to various colleges throughout the western

United States. He commended the mothers, fathers and faculty on their outstanding cooperation.

The mothers and fathers presented Father McNulty checks and a cake decorated with an exact replica of the school.

Mrs. Dwight Buhman and her committee, members of St. Catherine Laboure Parish, acted as hostesses and served the refreshments.

New committee chairmen for the year introduced by Mrs. W. R. Reeves, mothers dept. chairman, are Mmes. Lyle O'Hara, Lee Fox, George Molinelli, Lew Westwood, W. R. Lichty, James Anderson, Francis Chamberlin, George Brynes, E. J. Burnell, Dwight Buhman, John McGuire, Lars Holt, Irene Embrey, Kathleen Owens, Tom Ellis, LeRoy Hunt, Joseph Teahan.

Father McNulty is being temporarily assigned to a parish at Newhall.

Miss Joan Chabb of Torrance and Bob Kierbow of Hollywood Riviera recently dined at the Pen & Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Bell of El Segundo.

Indian Maidens Enjoy Picnic

Sequoia Tribe, YMCA Indian Maidens and their families journeyed to Exposition Park on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 1, for a picnic.

After the picnic, the group toured the state and county museums with special interest in the doll exhibit.

At present, the Indian Maidens are selling tickets to the YMCA Good Neighbor Breakfast.

The tribe participates in YMCA activities as well as holding semi-monthly tribal councils.

New Officers Are Elected By Eastern Star Chapter

Torrance Chapter 330, Order of the Eastern Star, met Thursday at the Masonic Temple with Raymond Shaffer, worthy patron giving the welcome.

Betty Womble, worthy matron, Valley chapter, Los Angeles, was presented and invited to sit in the east by Francis Reiser, worthy matron.

Past matrons and patrons escorted and introduced were Marguerite and Ed Morgan, Florence Viellenave, Bernice

Ruppel, Edna Babcock, Jeanette Clark, Vivian and Fred Cook, Ray Lougee, of Torrance; Scotty Brumner, Beacon Ray Chapter, Los Angeles; Mary Anderson, Valley chapter, Los Angeles, and Lucille Thompson, Elizabeth chapter, Pennsylvania.

During a business meeting conducted by Francis Reiser, the following new officers were elected: Carolyn Pennington, worthy matron; John Pennington, worthy patron; Freda Shaffer, associate matron; Bernard Day, associate patron; Vivian Cook, secretary; Helen Carpenter, treasurer; Harriette F. Warnick, conductress, and Marguerite Morgan, trustee.

Refreshments were served by Marguerite Morgan and her committee, Rega Shepherd, Adelle Abbott, Ada Drake, Elizabeth Allen, Mary Baer, Norma Brezentine, Charles Myers, Lois and Herb Sherwood.

DONNA CARPENTER
... At Gallaudet

Local Girl In College For Deaf

Miss Donna Marie Carpenter, 3750 W. 173rd St., Torrance, is among the new students enrolled at Gallaudet College in Washington, D.C., the world's only college for the deaf.

Donna is a member of the college preparatory class and is a former student of the California School for the Deaf in Riverside.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Carpenter of 173rd St., Torrance.

Fashion Show For Sub-Teens At Broadway

"Somebody's Best Girl," a fashion show for Dad's special young lady, will be held in the Tea Room of the Broadway Del Amo on Saturday, Oct. 21, at 3:30 p.m.

The show will feature a delightful collection of Youngland dresses and sportswear in sizes 2 through 12, highlighting such holiday colors as gum drop green, bubble blue, and orange pop. In addition, there will be a trunk showing of advance Youngland fashions all day in the Girls' Ready-to-Wear Department.

To make the event even more exciting, any child wearing a Youngland dress may model and have her picture taken by Miss Polaroid of Polaroid Cameras. Four door prizes, including play suits and skirts, will be awarded "Somebody's Best Girls." There will also be two door prizes for Dad. Admission is free.

Houseguests

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Spencer of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived Tuesday to spend several days here as guests of Mrs. Mary McDonald, 1626 Beech Ave. The Spencers are on a tour of Southern California.

Attend Show

Attending the "Guys and Dolls" production at the Philharmonic in Los Angeles Wednesday afternoon were Mrs. Fred Bever, Mrs. Dan Barnard and Mrs. Rolland Homolka.
