A3C William C. Cole, radio operator, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Winters, 20935 Dalton Ave., has arrived in Christchurch, New Zealand to participate in Operation Deep Freeze '62. He is a member of the 9th Troop Carrier Squadron.

Flying 9 C-124 Globemasters they will airlift about 700 tons of supplies and equipment from Christchurch to the Naval Air Facility at McMurdo Sound, Antarctica where they will operate from an airstrip carved out of the ice. They will airdrop an additional 1,500 tons of vital supplies to inland stations at the South Pole and Marie Byrd Land.

Airman Warren C. Crow Jr., whose parents live at 5017 Merrill St., has been selected to attend the United States Air Force technical training course for supply specialists at Amarillo AFB, Tex.

Airman Crow was selected for advanced training on the basis of his interests and aptitudes determined during basic training.

He is a former student of Central State College in Edmond, Okla., where he majored in business.

Army PFC Lawrence B. Miller, whose wife, Ingrid, lives at 23330 Ward St., participated with other members of the 503rd Infantry Combat Team in Exercise Tien Bang (Sky Soldier), a joint Nationalist Chinese-American airborne operation which ended on Taiwan Sept. 30.

Miller and other members of his unit were airlifted from their home station on Okinawa and jumped in the rugged Ping Tung air base area of the Nationalist Chinese stronghold. The American paratroopers linked up with an airborne Chinese unit which jumped north of the air base to successfully complete the joint military operation.

Exercise Tien Bang was the first time in the 503rd Combat Team's history that it participated in a joint exercise with troops of a foreign nation.

Miller, a wireman in Mortar Battery of the team on Okinawa, entered the Army in June 1959 and arrived overseas in June 1960.

The 19-year-old soldier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Miller, 2426 W. 236th St., attended Torrance High School.

Army Sgt. Wayne E. Jordan, 31, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Jordan, 20947 S. Denker Ave., recently was graduated from the 4th Armored Division Non-Commissioned Officer (NCO) Academy in Germany.

Sgt. Jordan received four weeks of refresher training in various subjects with emphasis on leadership and combat tactics. The purpose of the academy is to broaden the professional knowledge of the NCO and instill in him the self-confidence and sense of responsibility required to make him a capable leader of men.

The 4th is one of five U. S. divisions in NATO's "Pyramid of Power" in Europe.

A squad leader in Company A of the 4th Armored Division's 41st Infantry in New Ulm, Jordan entered the Army in March 1951 and was stationed at Ft. Ord, Calif., before arriving overseas in April 1959 on this tour of duty.

The sergeant, whose wife, Donna, is with him in Germany, is a 1954 graduate of John C. Fremont High School in Los Angeles.
