League of Women Voters To Begin Second Series

Continuing with discussions on the knotty problems of economic diplomacy, the Palos Verdes Peninsula League of Women Voters plans the second group of meetings in a series of three on this subject. Discussions will be geared around the following topics: What effects do imports have on our economy? Should the government offer aid to injured industries? And, how should we handle the problem of agricultural surpluses?

AT THE FINAL meetings which will be held in a few weeks, league members will be asked to draw some final conclusions about improving our policies in the area of economics and these conclusions will become part of the national league position. Five meetings are scheduled to accommodate as many people as possible:

Monday, Oct. 30, at 12 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Crowther, 26801 Rolling Hills Rd., Rolling Hills. (Bring a sack lunch.)

The unit which ordinarily meets on Tuesday evenings will convene Monday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Albert Nadel, 305 Via Linda Vista, Hollywood Riviera. This meeting was changed because Halloween falls on Tuesday.

THE TUESDAY morning unit will meet as usual at the home of Mrs. R. A. Campbell, 5064 Foxpoint Lane, Rolling Hills Estates, at 9:45 a.m.

On Wednesday, Nov. 1, meetings will be held in the morning at 9:30 at the home of Mrs. J. R. Rensch, 2433 Via Sonoma, Palos Verdes Estates, and in the evening at 8 at the home of Mrs. Richard Huddleston, 27102 Freepoint Road, Palos Verdes Estates.

Women interested in joining the league are invited to call Mrs. Walter Peterson at FR 5-5737.

Spook Party Planned by Alondra Park

A Halloween carnival for everyone will be held on Tuesday at Alondra Regional Park's Activity Bldg., 3850 Manhattan Beach Blvd. The program will start at 7 p.m. with a bonfire followed by a costume parade and the carnival games until 9:30.

The whole family is invited to participate in the Halloween program. Prizes for the costumes in the costume parade for the various age groups, 7 and under, 8 to 12, and 13 and older, should make a colorful and delightful evening. There will be game booths where carnival prizes can be won for one cent a chance. There will be hot and cold drinks and witches brew for the braver ones. Everyone is urged to wear a costume and join in a fun-filled Halloween program.

This program is under the sponsorship of the Los Angeles County Dept. of Parks and Recreation.

First Fall Session of Guild Held

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church held its second dinner meeting of the fall season at the church Tuesday evening.

Following the dinner which was prepared and served by the Priscilla Circle and held in Fellowship Hall, the program was held in the Friendship room.

Announcement was made of the Wesleyan Service Guild Workshop to be held at the California Heights Methodist Church in Long Beach Sunday afternoon from 2 to 8 p.m.

SPECIAL GUEST speaker for the evening was the Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman whose topic for discussion was "Home, National, and International Affairs." He gave an outline of the functions of the United Nations and how all nations profited by its different programs. This was followed by a question and answer session.

Footlight Theatre to Stage Comedy at Plunge

"The White Sheep of the Family," a felonious comedy, will be presented by Footlight Theatre at the city plunge, 3331 Torrance Blvd., on Nov. 3, 10, 11, 17, and 18 at 8:30 p.m. Herman Boodman, who directed last season's drama, "Ladies in Retirement," undertakes the direction of this delightful comedy about a well-bred family of jewel thieves and pickpockets by L. du Garde Peach and Ian Hay.

Heading the cast, as James Winter, father of the clan, is Lou Verne, who is remembered from the players' production of "Dear Ruth." The mother is Irene Conry, who appeared in "Dear Ruth" and "Night Must Fall," and Conetto Giuliano plays son Peter who brings disgrace upon the family by setting down to an honest job. Others include Linda Kraegel, Iona Claxton, Gordon See, Jim Claxton, Bill Palser, and Suzanne Shinder. Evelyn Jones is in charge of properties. Footlight Theatre is now entering into its third year of presenting drama in the intimate manner of in-the-round. For ticket information, call DA 4-6080. The group has initiated a new policy of group rates.

New Zody's Northridge Opens Today

The newest and largest Zody's Discount Department store will open in Northridge at 10 a.m. today with civic officials and entertainment.

The store at Reseda Boulevard and Devonshire Street contains more than 90,000 square feet of floor space.

Richard H. Wolfe, vice president and general manager of the Southern California discount store chain, will attend the dedication with Lee Freedman, vice president and store supervisor, and officials from surrounding cities.

There are Zody's stories in Garden Grove, Redondo Beach, and Long Beach.

Children to Get Halloween Gifts

Halloween hi-jinks will be by-passed for a more serious venture when the High School Youth Fellowship Group of Waleria Community Methodist Church canvasses the Waleria area Tuesday night.

It'll be "Trick or Treat for UNICEF," with the young people seeking "treats" of coins to "trick" the ghosts of illness and starvation which threaten youngsters in the more than 100 countries aided by the United Nations Children Fund, sponsors said.

According to fellowship members, who will go out Halloween night from 6 to 8:30, contributions to their drive can't be too small. They point out, for instance, that one cent will buy five glasses of milk, or one nickel enough vaccine to protect five children from tuberculosis.
