GRAMPS GETS CHANCE TO STRUT HIS STUFF

While the younger generation is winding up its "Trick or Treat" outing next Tuesday evening, their elders will be kicking up their heels at a Halloween costume ball at Alondra Park's gymnasium to the music of "The Combo," it was reported here yesterday.

Plans for a dance for senior citizens, with admittance limited to those 50 or older, have been completed by park officials. Admission price has been set at 50 cents with the added condition that those attending must wear a costume — at least a mask.

The band providing the music is comprised of three blind musicians who have "a few special added activities to keep everyone on his dancing toes," the park director said.

The event is sponsored by the Los Angeles County Dept. of Parks and Recreation. It will continue from 8 until 11 p.m.

Bimbo to Head Cast at School Fete Saturday

Biggest attraction at the 223rd Street School's Halloween party this Saturday will be Bimbo Jr., the television elephant, sponsoring PTA officials reported yesterday. At least, they said, he'll be the heaviest.

Bimbo will be among acts including tumblers, ponies, clowns, aerialists, and acrobats presented by the Ted DeWayne Bros. circus as part of the day-long celebration at the school.

Activities will get under way at 10:30 a.m. at the school and are scheduled to continue until 4:30 p.m.

In addition to the circus, plans have been completed to present an old fashioned general store and bake sale.

Supervising the event will be Marie Lorenz, principal, and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, president of the PTA.

Shingle Boat Instruction Class Planned

An inservice class on construction techniques and designs of shingle boats will be held at Alondra Regional Park, 3850 Manhattan Beach Blvd., at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 2.

This inservice training is open to the public as well as groups and recreation departments to acquaint them with shingle boats and the techniques of construction. Alondra Regional Park holds a Shingle Boat Regatta each year in November and all groups are invited to participate. This training is given free in hopes of furnishing groups with a worthwhile project for children 12 years and younger.

A shingle boat is built out of an ordinary house shingle and powered by a sail. Each child who builds one has the opportunity to race it in the regatta to be held Nov. 24 at 11 a.m.

For further information call Alondra's Recreation Director Gordon Murley at DA 3-8125 Tuesday through Saturday after 2 p.m. This program is under the sponsorship of the Los Angeles County Dept. of Parks and Recreation.
