

North Whips South, 19-7 Tartars Remain Unbeaten In Intra-City Civil War With Win Against Eagles

Large Crowd Sees Saxons Sink SHS

Just as in 1865, the 1961 version of the Civil War ended in favor of the North as the Saxon gridders rolled to a 19-to-7 victory over intra-city arch-rival South High Friday night before a standing room only crowd of 5,000 at the Torrance High stadium.

After battling to a 0-to-0 deadlock in the first period, North lit the score-board with just 26 seconds left in the first half.

Doug Ball carried the pigskin over from four yards out, lining a six-play, 40-yard drive. The drive began when Skip Mooney intercepted a Dan Ly pass and returned it to the Spartan 40-yard stripe.

THE PLAY was debatable in as much as Turner went out of bounds with one second showing on the clock, and time should have been stopped when Turner went out-of-bounds.

Cougars Win, As Do Sents In Bay Loop

Remaining undefeated and tied for the Bay League lead, Hawthorne blasted Leuzinger, 41 to 0 and Inglewood barely edged a determined, gully, underdog Morningside eleven in Friday football action.

Second-stringer Steve Smith tallied a pair of touchdowns to lead the Cougars to an easy win over winless Leuzinger. Next foe for the powerful Hawthorne aggregation will be Mira Costa.

The Mustangs fell before Redondo 13 to 0 and should prove little opposition for the Cougar juggernaut.

ON THE other side of town, Inglewood and Morningside engaged in their usual free-for-all to determine the city championship. Form goes out the window in this contest and rugged Morningside, paced by All-Bay League returnee Gil Lefebvre gave the Sentinels all the fight they could handle.

Playing before 8,500 fans at Sentinel Stadium, Lefebvre scored the lone Monarch touchdown and rambling for 125 yards.

INGLEWOOD held only a thin 7 to 6 lead going into the final period, but a score by quarterback Troy Winslow iced the game for the Sents.

In Pioneer League action, surprisingly strong, Lawndale came within a conversion of tying once-mighty Aviation. The Falcons finally emerged as 7 to 6 victors after a bitter fight.

Culver City had no trouble moving past Lennox and appears to be ready for the Pioneer League showdown against Torrance High on Friday.

Frey Holds Pin Lead

Robbie Frey of Torrance continues her march toward the Southern California Women's Match Game Championship by retaining first place at the three-quarters mark.

Averaging better than 195 for the 24 games of the semifinals, she holds a 4.12 Peterson Point lead over second place Janet Harman.

COURT TOWER . . . Bill Spivey's court strength is easily compared to a city skyscraper. The 7-1 center will lead the Los Angeles Jets in their quest of the American Basketball League title. Jet's home opener is tomorrow against the Chicago Majors at the Sports Arena with the famed Harlem Globetrotters also featured in the big doubleheader against the Boston Whirlwinds.

SEAHAWKS ROUTED

Long Beach Pigskinners Steamroll Harbor Eleven

Unable to cut the mustard against Metropolitan Conference foes, Harbor College lost its second straight and third loop decision of the year Friday night as mighty Long Beach City College rolled to a 42 to 6 victory.

Things looked bright for Harbor before the loop officially opened, as the Seahawks began the practice schedule by upsetting highly touted San Bernardino, 30 to 25.

Harbor came right back the next week and cruised by Citrus, 22 to 0, and HJC patrons had visions of their most successful squad in history. But the dream was shattered as Santa Monica, the first Metro foe for the Hawks, squeaked out a 19 to 13 win.

HJC WAS NOT through yet though, and the Blue and Gold roared back the next week to erase East Los Angeles' bid for an upset, 15 to 13.

Then the real fun began as Bakersfield moved one of its most powerful grid teams ever into the Seahawk Stadium and came away with a 42 to 0 decision.

LONG BEACH was next on the list, but the 'Hawks fared only slightly better against last year's Junior Rose Bowl champs than against the Renegades . . . they scored.

North Routs Spartan Bees

Showing the way for their varsity teammates, the North High Bee gridders thumped South, 32-7, Friday.

The Saxons scored in every quarter to completely dominate the contest. Pete Molina rammed 83 yards with the second half kickoff and scored another touchdown to lead the North scorers.

John Rance hauled the pigskin four yards for another NHS TD and Ron Govan punched for six from five yards out.

The other North score came when John Lether fell on a blocked South punt in the Spartans' end zone. Dorrin Hannah and Rance were responsible for the Saxon conversions.

Torrance Upends 'Gundo, Unbeaten Centaurs Next

Setting up Friday's all-or-nothing grid crucial with Culver City for the Pioneer League championship, Torrance High scored in every quarter to ramble past host El Segundo Friday night, 24 to 13.

Torrance and Culver City are both undefeated in loop action and the game should determine which eleven will emerge as kingpins of the league.

It was a big night for Bob Roy as the speedy halfback boomed two and three yards for a pair of touchdowns. Allan Billings and Jerry McLean each smashed over for a Tartar TD.

JIM SLEKER scored all of El Segundo's points, scoring two touchdowns and kicking a conversion.

Culver City warmed up for the tilt by coasting to a 34 to 19 win over Lennox. The Centaurs are unbeaten for the season, having walked over Mira Costa, 27 to 6; Hamilton, 19 to 6; Aviation, 27 to 7; El Segundo, 38 to 12; and Palos Verdes, 28 to 6.

TORRANCE tied Redondo, 12 to 12, and lost to Inglewood, 33 to 6, but then came back to club out wins over Lawndale, 43 to 21; Beverly Hills, 12 to 6; and Aviation, 26 to 13.

Up against the same situation last year, and with the Pioneer League title in the balance, a six-point favored Torrance eleven was burned by Culver City, 38 to 6.

The Tartars will be out to gain revenge for the defeat and for the league title and the chance to continue into the CIF playoffs.

St. Monica Dumps Bishop Montgomery

Bishop Montgomery gridiron fortunes appeared to be on the uprise following last week's 21 to 6 victory over St. John Vianny, but St. Monica's put the Knight's hope for success on a downhill skid Friday night, rumbling to a 37 to 6 triumph.

It appeared as if St. Monica's would have a battle on its hands as the first quarter ended with BMHS behind by only 7 to 6, but from then on in, it was no go for the Knights as the winners scored in every quarter while holding Montgomery scoreless.

The lone Knight touchdown came as Jay Miller, celebrating his birthday, punched over from the one-yard line.

STEVE BOVERI, a tackle, recovered a Bishop Montgomery fumble in the Knight end zone for the first St. Monica's tally. Bob Rodriguez booted the conversion.

In the second quarter, a Bob Dolivuk to Robert Galvan pass from 10 yards out was good for a score.

RODRIGUEZ and Galvan ran three and eight yards respectively in the third period as St. Monica's boosted its lead to 25 to 6.

Rick Kolb rambling for a final period score and Dolivuk threw to Joe Knyble for the last score of the evening.

THE KNIGHT blocking fell off in the second half and that was the ball game. At the end of the first two quarters, BMHS led the victors in total yardage gained, but could not keep up the clip in the final half.

Bishop Montgomery will travel next week, meeting powerful Alemany on Friday.

Lions Invade Los Angeles, Battle Rams

The Los Angeles Rams, who last year ended a 13-game victory drought by beating the Detroit Lions, hope to halt their current three-game skid at the expense of the same club today at the Coliseum.

Kickoff is scheduled for 1:35 as the Rams open a three-game home stand. A crowd of more than 40,000 persons is predicted.

Last year, after getting into the win column with a 48-35 decision over the Lions in Los Angeles, the Rams suffered a 12-10 setback two weeks later in Detroit. This year, the first meeting of the season was in the Motor City and the Lions again won a close one, 14-13.

So, if the 1960 pattern holds, a wild-scoring affair seems in store for fans here Sunday.

CERTAINLY the Rams seemed to be getting their attack in working order again last Sunday in New York when they netted 218 yards on the ground at the expense of the Giants, feared as the strongest of all NFL defensive units against running offense.

Jon Arnett, who ran for 118 yards last Sunday, and Dick Bass, who slashed for 91 yards and a touchdown, again are expected to be the main cogs in the running game. Arnett will open at left half, Bass at fullback and Ollie Matson at the slotback post.

ZEKE BRATKOWSKI is scheduled to start at quarterback with ace reliever Frank Ryan in the wings. Coach Bob Waterfield has pointed out that Ryan, whose play has shown improvement of late, seems to do better when he serves as a relief man rather than a starting pitcher.

The Lions, too, have been alternating quarterbacks from game to game with both Jim Ninowski and Earl Morrall seeing action. Although they have not shown one of the league's better passing attacks, the Lions won the first meeting with a pass play which began with a double reverse and wound up with Ninowski pitching to end Grail Cogdill on a 43-yard touchdown pass play.

Gauchos Nab Second Win, Jordan Next

Finally seeming to pull themselves together as a team, the Narbonne Gauchos crushed visiting Hamilton, 21 to 6, Friday on the winner's gridiron.

All-Marine League returnee Stu Dahlager rumbled across the goal-line for one Gauchito TD and John Batista and Bob Germain handled the remainder of the Gauchos scoring.

The win was only the second of the year for Narbonne. The Gauchos downed Salesian, 26 to 0, for the other victory. They have lost to Washington, Huntington Park and Gardena.

Next foe in line for the Gauchos will be Jordan on Friday. Jordan fell before Gardena, 13 to 7, in another Friday contest.

Schwanbeck romped for six on a 60-yard jaunt and then kicked the PAT. Cloudman scored on a seven-yard run.

QUARTERBACK Chris Dawson struck through the air for two additional Long Beach scores. Dawson pitched five yards to Dick Van Wert and 69 yards to Dave Garrison.

Jerry Orcutt also tallied twice for the winners, going one yard and three yards for six points. Orcutt added four points to his scoring total for the night, running over two extra-point attempts. Andrews ran over one PAT to finish with 14 points for the evening.

Harbor's homecoming will be this Friday against Los Angeles Valley.

North Routs Spartan Bees
