Herald Writers Explore Mania for Fallout Shelters

Herald Phone Numbers

- FAirfax 8-4000-For General News
- FAirfax 8-5164—For Society
- FAirfax 8-4000-For Classified. Ask for Ad-Taker

If your Herald delivery is late, call Circulation - FAirfax 8-4000 - before 10 A.M. Sundays or 2 P.M. on Thursdays

Torrance Herald

Your Complete Community Newspaper Every Sunday and Thursday

(Verified Audit) Only Audited Mass Coverage of Torrance

10c Per Copy

60 PAGES

OFFICE & PLANT, 1619 GRAMERCY AVE. - TORRANCE, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1961 48th Year-No. 90

RESIDENTS ATTACK DEATH BRIDGE

"Would you be in favor of paying 10 cents a day for four ing feelings to anyone — not years in tax to build fallout even her parents.

Gayle is only three-and-athe Pennies photographer asked Torrance shoppers.

Mrs. Harold McCrillis, 20819

'I'm in favor f it. I think the children should be safe-guarded. I'd be willing to pay as much as $65. We throw $65. We throw that much

Mrs. Harold Carroll, 5013
Steveann Ave.:
"I think it's a good idea because a majority of the people can't afford to build a shelter in their back yard so a community shelter would be the only answer if it were large enough. I don't think 10 be the only answer if it were large enough. I don't think 10 cents a day is too much to pay. If the shelters were never used they could be converted to hospital staff. they could be converted to some type of recreation."

L. F. Daszkoski, 17004 S.

Prairie Ave.:
"It's probably a good idea. I'm not convinced one way or another. Naturally if there were a war we would need them.

Rather than build shelters, I'd like to see schools built with such protection. It would be a good idea to have them underground."

know they are being taken care of if they care of it they can't get home.

I would be glad to pay 10 cents a day. If they don't protect the younger generation I'm afraid there won't be many generations."

Two Crash

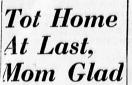

Victims

Mrs. Irene Breedlove, 22532

eyte Dr.: "I would be willing to pay such a tax. Ten cents is not bad. I've seen money go to channels which are not as im-

City to Observe Veterans' Day

Tiny, adorable Gayle Yano knows what it's like to be home for the first time.

However, she will never be able to relate her home-com-

Gayle is only three-and-a-half months old. Two days after she was born she developed pneumonia. Several days later she was transferred from the sne was transferred from the hospital where she was born to Childrens Hospital in Los Angeles — a Community Chest agency — for specific diagno-sis and treatment,

At the Chest-supported hospital, specialists found that Gayle was suffering from recurring inflammation and fluid on the lungs. Treatment started immediately and a number of surgical procedures were caraway on more frivolous things. I don't think 10 cents a day is too much." immediately and a number of surgical procedures were carried out in order to find the cause of her illness. cause of her illness.

LAST WEEK, in spite of set-backs during her treatment, Gayle came home smiling. A thankful and happy family welcomed her.

The bright-eyed baby is presently enjoying the convivial companionship of her brother Robert and sister Carolyne, aged three and two, as well as the love of her parents.

the love of her parents.

To Mr. and Mrs. John Yano, 1991 W. 182nd St., it's a great relief to have Gayle home but uild shelters, I'd like to see thools built with such protection. It would be a good idea have them underground."

Mrs. Forbert Candiff, Wilmington:

"It hink it's a good idea through is not new. Their son Robert had similar trouble with his lungs soon after he was born. He was admitted to Childrens Hospital when 11 months old for diagnosis and later underwent surgood idea be sis and later underwent sur-gery. The middle lobe of one three children in school and would want to known as the "stubborn" mem-ber of the Yano family, is a (Continued on Page 2)

Victims Said Fair

Three-year-old Candice Pence of 2318 W. 179th St. was in fair condition yesterday at Little Company of Mary Hospital where she was taken after being struck by a car on 179th Street west of Arlington Avenue.

Police said the car was driven by Raymond Loyd Turner,
en by Raymond Loyd Turner, criticized their presence on building shelters at schools is a good idea but I'm not in favor of home shelters."

Police said the car was driventy of the by Raymond Loyd Turner, 46, of 2807 W. 179th St. The accident occurred about 4:30 p.m. Tuesday. The little girl underwent surgery Tuesday night after suffering major injuries.

City to Observe

Police said the car was driventy entity after Mayor Albert Isen cently after Mayor A

Ethel Lane Bennett, 48, of 818 Madrid Ave. was also reported in fair condition yesterday at the same hospital. She City offices will be closed Friday, Nov. 10, in observance Veterans' Day the following cody, according to City Manager Wade E. Peebles. Trash pickups will be delayed one day through Nov. 18.

HOME AT LAST . . . Tiny Gayle Yano, home for the first time, is shown with her mother, Mrs. John Yano, while her sister, Carolyn, looks on curiously.

By Councilmen

Regulations for Newsracks Asked

(Contnued on Page 2)

Drafting of a "tailored" or-dinance to regulate placement public officials can be black-and operation of newspaper racks on the city's sidewalks is commenting," Isen said. under study today by City At-torney Stanley Remelmeyer on return of the Socialist publithe instructions of the City

The outgrowth of a discussion on a publication of the Socialist Labor Party, the Council's instructions to Remelmeyer contained no specific recommendations, but implied that he should research the problem thoroughly and make recommendations for some regulation without infringing on the rights of newspapers. In a companion motion, the councilmen instructed the city attorney to "proceed under present laws to regulate news that he had any part in remov-al of the racks, which were later found in a Torrance field.

IT WAS indicated at the

The mayor abstained from voting on the matter Tuesday saying he was still under ar injunctive order not to inter-fere with the distribution of the publication.

"I DON'T believe the judge's

Channel Bed Residents of North Torrance areas adjacent to the recently reconstructed Dominguez Channel this week launched a campaign to secure added safety facilities along the drainage canal, especially at the bridge crossings. The campaign was launched after 4-year-old Jules

Boy, 4, Dies

In Drop to

The campaign was laun Anongoes, son of Mrs. Loretta H. Anongoes, 3404 W. 186th St., was killed in a fall from the Arlington Ave. bridge over the channel Monday evening. Councilman Nick Drale said yesterday that he had been asked about the problem, but that the channel and bridges were under the jurisdiction of the County Flood Control Dis-

the County Flood Control Dis-"WHAT WE WANT is a fence or net on the sides of the bridges so children can not fall onto the concrete bed of the channel," one resident told

HERALD.
Police said the 4-year-old Anongoes boy was apparently playing on the bridge which crosses the channel on Arlington Avenue near 169th Street before he fell about 4:30 p.m.
Monday.
Whether he was able to slip whether he was able to ship through the railing, or climbed over the side rails which are about 45 inches high, no one knew. There were no witnesses to the tragedy.

A SPOKESMAN for Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, in whose district the tragedy occurred, said yesterday that Hahn has instructed the County Flood Control District to make an immediate survey of the situation and to take whatever corrective measures deemed necessive statements.

MIAMI BOUND . . . Representatives of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors who are leaving today and tomorrow for Miami to attend the annual meeting of the National Assn. of Real Estate Boards (NAREB) gather around President Delbert Vaughn (who has tickets). Left from Vaughn are Mrs. Marjoric Krogmann, attendance chairman; Mrs. June

Hansley, member of attendance committee; and Forest Beyrer, executive secretary of the

Opinions Vary on Shelters

Four new nationally known columnist join the HERALD columnist join the HERALD ranks today, and five more are due Sunday—an exclusive collection of writers on American scenes for HERALD readers.

Three of the new columnists, whose thoughts are published for the first time here today, are convened about fallout the HERALD yesterday.

Petitions asking the county to look into the matter are being prepared for circulation among residents of the area, another resident told the HERALD.

Relies said the Averged LUCIUS BEEBE, a self-

LUCIUS BEEBE, a self-styled snob, has his opinion; Art Hoppe, whose normal assignment is politics, looks at the matter from another vantage point; and Abe Mellinkoff, author of "Morning Report," adds his ideas. All of these opinions may be found today on Page 32.

Disregarding the fallout and concentrating on another cultural front today is Royce Brier, who relates his introduction to The Twist, a strong contender to replace whatever the teenagers call their current style of dancing. His report also is on Page 32.

port also is on Page 32.

Control District to make an immediate survey of the situation and to take whatever corrective measures deemed necessary.

DUE SUNDAY are the comments of Count Marco, who specializes in the seductive arts; Stan Delaplane, widely at "It was the first anyone had mentioned the possible dangers to us." Hahn's assistant told the HERALD. He said how ever, that people contacting his office apparently had been apprehensive about the situation for several months.

"It was the first anyone had mentioned the possible dangers to us." Hahn's assistant told the HERALD. He said how ever, that people contacting his office apparently had been apprehensive about the situation for several months.

HOMECOMING QUEEN . . . Nancy Cornelius, first home-coming queen at Bishop Montgomery High School, wears a crown that is more than 300 years old. She will reign over festivities at the school this weekend. (Herald Photo)

Bishop Montgomery Picks First Homecoming Queen

and Miss Cornelius chosen from them by the football gold lined with black velvet, is eggs on walls inside the cafe-300 years old and originally teria.

Nancy Cornelius and a court of four princesses will reign French cathedral. Stolen during the French revolution, it is eventually found its way back first annual homecoming festivities.

The queen will be crowned Friday night at halftime as the Knights meet Fermin Lasuen in a Camino Real League football contest. Members of her court are Kathy Reed, Janet King, Jo Ann Roberts, and Arlene Rodgers.

Saturday evening, her royal highness will preside at the homecoming dance in the study hall-library, to which Montgomery invitors and found in the study hall-library, to which Montgomery in the study of the status of the study hall-library, to which Montgomery in the study of the status of the school at Bishop Montgomery.

Chairmen of committees, under the direction of Fr. Fabian Labedis, O.F.M., Conv., are been supported to the school at Bishop Montgomery.

Chairmen of committees, under the direction of Fr. Fabian Labedis, O.F.M., Conv., are been supported to the school at Bishop Montgomery.

Chairmen of committees, under the direction of Fr. Fabian Labedis, O.F.M., Conv., are been supported to the school at Bishop Montgomery.

Chairmen of committees, under the direction of Fr. Fabian Labedis, O.F.M., Conv., are been supported to the school at Bishop Montgomery.

Chairmen of committees, under the direction of Fr. Fabian Labedis, O.F.M., Conv., are been supported to the school at Bishop Montgomery.

Chairmen of committees, under the direction of Fr. Fabian Labedis, O.F.M., Conv., are been supported to the school at Bishop Montgomery. body President Joe Allen are sudy hall-library, to which Montgomery juniors, seniors, and alumni are invited.

The five senior girls were nominated by the Varsity Club

By Three Toughs

Floats from the four classes will roll before the stands and be judged at halftime Friday.

THE queen's crown, made of afternoon where they threw

In The Herald Today

Amusements 6, 7,	Legal Notices 40
Ann Landers 17	Abe Mellinkoff 32
Armed Forces 8	Obituaries 4
Lucius Beebe 32	Scout News 58
Royce Brier 32	Society 17-25
Charles Chapel 22	Sports 34-36
Editorials 32	Tartar Teen Talk 13
Art Hoppe 32	Want Ads 40-46