Downtown Art Studio Opening

An art studio displaying works of local South Bay artists opened Sunday on Cravens Avenue across from the downtown Torrance post office.

Called the Drawing Room, it had its grand opening from 2 to 6 p.m. Commemorating the event was a juried open-competitive show.

Services to be offered by the studio will include art classes which will be taught by the owner, Bernard L. Hoefler who has had 11 years of teaching experience in the Torrance area.

Free lance artists are being interviewed for listing with the studio. Specialists in all facets of the commercial art field are available to meet the demands of any art need of businesses.

Classes are being offered in life drawing and painting, sculpture, general painting, drawing, and children's classes.

Idea for the studio developed with Hoefler when he saw one of his ex-students clearing tables of dirty dishes.

"There just isn't any for the beginner to break into the art field," the student said.
Hoefler immediately began planning an outlet for young creative talent.

Coed Makes Honor List

Rochelle Baumgarten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Baumgarten of 4023 W. 176th St., has been named to the president's list of scholars for the spring semester at Humboldt State College in northern California.

She is a sophomore and majoring in speech. Baumgarten was graduated from North High School. Her father is an inspector for American Airlines.

Students named to the president's list are undergraduates who have earned a B-plus or better in 12 or more units of work and who have received no F's or incomplete grades for the semester.

Counterspies To Address Rotary Club

Marion and Paul Miller will tell of their personal experiences in the Communist Party as undercover agents for the Federal Bureau of Investigation Wednesday, Nov. 29, when they speak at a Torrance Rotary Club meeting.

The session will be at noon in the Palms restaurant, 1925 W. Carson St. Mrs. Miller became the objective of a Communist front organization. How she was able to utilize their ambitions for their own downfall is part of their presentation.

As members of the Communist party the Millers were able to analyze the people who joined for various reasons.
Their thoughtful portrayal will challenge many accepted concepts based on successful Communist propaganda, according to Dr. John W. Beeman, program chairman.

Miller is a graduate of the United States Maritime Offi-Academy at New London, Conn., and his wife was graduated from the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Fla., where she majored in education and music.

"Face-saving has been an old trick in the Orient, but it didn't pay off until the U.S. beauty industry took over."
— Harold Rogers, Easley (S.
C.) Progress.
