SAXONS UPSET COUGARS, 13-0° Mighty Hawthorne Falls

The Fearless Spectator By

Charles McCabe, Esquire

It was a fine hot summer day in New York City in 1886, and a great occasion. The little girl, age 7, was on vacation from the Convent of Notre Dame on Rittenhouse Square in Philadelphia. She was living at the New York apartment of her uncle, John Drew; and her father, Maurice Barrymore, was taking her to her first baseball game.

Ethel and her father journeyed up to the Polo Grounds on the old elevated railway to see the New York Giants. "I was very excited," she remarks in her autobiography, "but not nearly as excited as my father. It turned out that he was a Giant fan, which I have found out during the years is not the same as being a baseball fan.'

That day the Giants lost. Maurice Barrymore was fractured. His handsome dimpled chin trembled and his face was ghastly as he walked back to the El with his daughter. On the platform, waiting for the train, he paced up and down the platform, raging like a child with the colic. He threw his arms heavenward, and cried:

"God! How could you do this to me, how could you?"

Ethel was embarrassed beyond belief, "I slipped into another car on the train," she said, "pretending I didn't know that eccentric Englishman --- and I can't tell you how English he sounded in the shadow of Coogan's Bluff. I had no idea where to get off that elevated train, so I was eventually removed to a police station and returned rather in style to my parents . . .

What the great actress said was perfectly true, until the final days of the Giants' residence in New York. The Giant fan was sui generis, or sui for short.

I know. I was one myself, a passionate and wholly engaged one. Until I was of age 9. That was in 1924, and it was a big year in my psychic life. The Giants betrayed me by losing the World Series to the Washington Senators. I turned my back on baseball for life. I thought. Until a kindly editor signed me to write about them two years back.

The Giant fan was raffish and non-conformist. Nearly all show business people, from George Cohan down, were Giant fans. They admired wildly the baroque and bellicose style of John McGraw, the Giant manager McGraw was as far from the present manager, Al Dark, as a hard-drinking, fist-throwing, horse- playing Irish Catholic can be from a non-smoking, nonviolent. nondrinking Louisiana Baptist elder.

The Giant fan of those days was the fellow who adored Mayor Jimmy Walker, while perfectly aware Hizzoner was a crook. The Yankee fan was likely to be a Wall Street type or insurance man or some such who would disapprove of Jimmy, and wholly approve of Samuel Seabury, the stern old Judge who finally unhorsed Our Hero. The Dodger fan, being in Brooklyn, couldn't have cared less. There were lots of fist fights about baseball in the '20s. You could safely bet most of them were started by Giant fans. Times has changed,

FAVORITES FALL Upsets Run Rampant on Gridiron As Cougars, MHS, Falcons Lose

There is no joy in Haw to cinch at least a tie for the norme, the mighty Cougars first place slot. thorne, the mighty Cougars first place slot. have struck out. Heavily favored to win Bay Heavily favored to Hawthorne rugged Beverly Hills next but the pieces together in the last stanza as Billings, Mike Ciccihini and George Ojard all pushed into the Lancer end zone for six points.

END OF THE LINE ... Warrior halfback Jim Allison make desparate attempt to skirt the right end during yesterday afternoon's homecoming game against Harbor College, but halfback Sam Bates has him nailed on the spot. The game was the final contest for each team this season. (Herald Photo by Darrell Maddox) BILLINGS PACES WIN Torrance Subdues Lennox With Final Quarter Surge Ramming home 20 fourth ver City's 18-0 win over Lawn- rance a 7-0 halftime lead.

DESPITE THE win Tor-rance's hopes for at least a piece of the league title were dimmed considerably by Cul-

threat. hold

ishes the Saxons slate.

Before Determined North Up and down North High reached the pinnacle of its gridiron success Friday night when the underdog Saxons pulled the impossible and upset highly-ranked Hawthorne, 13

Mighty Hawthorne with its big, fast, experienced line and a bevy of quick, hardrunning, pin-point passing backs, was rated in the top 10 CIF teams. The Cougars had only one blotch on their record, a bitterly fought 21 to 21 back into the Bay League league crown on their scalp ord, a bitteriy fought 21 to 21 b ack into the Bay League town on the first starp tie with powerful Inglewood. North did not stand a chance. The Saxons had almost been the victims of a tremendous upset the week before when Sentinels need do to put the championship.

the victims of a tremendous upset the week before when they had barely squeezed past lowly Leuzinger, 14 to 7. The STREAK SNAPPED Olympians had scored only one other touchdown in two and one half years, but they almost beath North.

IT WAS A different story this week though as the NHS defense stopped the vaunted Cougar running game and aer-ial attack at every turn and forced Hawthorne into three crucial fumbles to eliminate crucial fumbles to eliminate ble toe of Harvey Seigel to lift it to a 13 to 12 victory over Mira Costa on the Tor-rance High gridiron Friday every HHS scoring threat. While the North defense was halting Hawthorne at every hatting frawthorne at every rance fign grintron friday turn, the offense was busy evening. working around, through and over the highly touted Cougar the first half, the two luckless defense.

MIDWAY THROUGH the first period, Dan Claxton hauled in a 35-yard aerial from Jeff Bell to give the Saxons their first score of the ball-Homecoming game.

Beginning the Homecoming tradition on the wrong foot, Bishop Montgomery droped a Rich Parker chipped in with the conversion to give fired-up North a 7-0 cushion it rode into intermission. Bishop Montgomery droped a 25 to 6 El Camino Real League

IN THE third quarter, the decision to Fermin Lasuen Saxons hit paydirt once again, this time on a Bell to Skip Mooney pass.

Mooney pass. It was simply a matter of North High doing everything scoreless in the first quarter right and Hawthorne just not seemingly able to put its tal-least one tally in each of the ents together.

NOT UNTIL late in the final half did the Cougars finally start to demonstrate their s p e e d and power. But even then, their mistakes spoiled the scoring attempt as Hawthorne drove down to the Saxon's 10-yard stripe only to lose the ball on a fumble and end the threat.

The loss dropped the Cou-gars out of a first place tie with AFTER intermission, Tim Inglewood and settled the m Foley sped 87 yards to give into third place behind North. The Saxons are just half a g a me behind the Sentinels. HIS has only the tie with Haw-before to mar an otherwise sore for the third period. Lu-perfect record, while only a 33.6 loss from the Sents blew. 33-6 loss from the Sents blemscore 13 to 0. Sturdivant scored once more for the invaders, this time in the final quarter on an 83-yard

Hawthorne will battle bitter rival Morningside on Friday.

SHOULD Inglewood lose, and North win, the Saxons would

South to Grid Win @ Snapping a string of five elevens erupted for 25 points consecutive defeats, South in the second half. High relied on the dependa. The Mustangs made a strong

Seigel PAT Boosts

The Mustangs made a strong third quarter attempt to run away with the game, racking up a pair of TDs.

SOUTH fought back, push-South fought back, push-ing over a score of its own. Seigel boomed across for six points to bring the Spartans back into the picture and then converted for what eventually proved to be the decisive point of the contest.

of the contest. The victory ended a skein of losses which had seen Sparta fall before North Inglewood, Hawthorne, Morningside and Redondo. Next on the South schedule will be Bay League doormat Leuzinger.

THE OLYPIANS cannot be overlooked though as North High found out last week. The Saxons were looking ahead to their grid titanic with Haw-thorne and Leuzinger almost spoiled the dream. The Olymps shook the Saxon pillars before falling 14 to 6. It is unlikely though that the Sparting will be overeas least one taily in the last three periods. The first quarter was a score-less, defensive duel as both teams seemed to be feeling each other out. Then in the second period, the visitors be-gan to move, pushing down to the Montgomery 10-yard line tim short punches. From there, but he more pushing down there, the more pushing down the spartans looking forward to their game with cross-town rival North High. This time though, there is nothing to look forward too.

nothing to look forward too. The contest will mark the end of the grid season for both clubs.

Yellowjacket

e dash. FIGHTING BACK in the fourth period, Tom Martin climaxed a Knight drive by bulling over from one yard out the evening. George Ray bulled for six points on a one-yard plunge and Dan Pritchett exploded for 17 yards and a touchdown as the Torrance Vikings rambled past the Redondo Beach Yel-lowjackets, 13 to 0 in a Pop Warner Peewee Division con-test.

George Ray kicked the point-after-touchdown for the Vikings. In a close tilt, the Hawthorne Oilers mowed down the Tor-rance Oilers 12 to 9. Jimmy Fox barreled four yards Fox barreled four yards through center for the lone Oiler TD of the game. Tony Walchler converted. The other Abrams put the clamps on an Scorpion player behind the Hawthorne goal line.

IN THE Midget Division, the Torrance Chargers squeezed by the Redondo Beach Charg-ers, 9 to 7. Terry Tiedman scored the Torrance TD on a scored the Torrance TD on a scored the Torrance TD on a one-yard line buck and John Hoettger tackled à Redoudo ball carrier behind his gorl line for a safety to account for the orrance according The a safety to account for the orrance scoring. Danny Kling scored on jaunts of 9, 10 and 17 yards to lead the Torrance Steelers to a 35-13 win over the Haw-thorne Wasps. Other Steeler scores came on TD runs of four yards by Dave Smith and a six-yard by Bok Cane Care a six-yard by Bob Cano. Cano booted four PATs and Bruce Cooke and Bill Sorenson each chipped in with one apiece.

quarter points, Torrance High dale. kept alive its faint hopes for The previous week, the Cen- Lennox managed to hold Torrance scoreless after the kept alive its faint hopes for a chunk of the Pioneer League title by rolling over stubborn Lennox, 27 to 6. Allan Billings romped home for a touchdown and booted two conversions to pace the Tartar scorers. Up until the final period, Torrance held a slim 7-0 lead, but the Tartars managed to put all the pieces togsther in the tartar stub set of the tartar stip set of the tartar set of the tar

APPARENTLY demoralized after the Culver City licking, Torrance played listless ball the first three quart is the transport of the transport of the transport of the transport is the transport of the transport of Heavily favored to win Bay League title, the Hawthorne eleven fell before a fired-up North High squad 13 to 0 Fri-day night to all but gift-wrap the loop crown for Inglewood. The Sentinels and Cougars and previously battled to a 21-21 tie in a contest that was supposedly to determine the loop champion. INGLEWOOD kept its un-INGLEWOOD kept its un-The Sents must now only get title and the right to go into the CFF playoffs.

tile and the right to go into the CIF playoffs. In the Pioneer League title chase, Culver City practically placed the crown in its trophy case as the Centaurs rolled to an 18-0 victory over Lawndale

Gauchos Fall IN THE El Camino Real

Clinching at least a tie for the Marine League title, San Pedro spoiled Narbonne's beaten Alemany, 33 to 25. homecoming Friday by licking the Gauchos 20 to 0. Powerful San Pedro was held League title Saturday night by too much power in the final by nudging favored Long Beach the aroused Gauchos, but had too much power in the final half to be held from the score-board. by held from the score-the way for the win.

BOWLING GROUP HONOR . . . Mrs. Ruth Caudel of Gardena, president of the 50 and over Bowling Club, poses in the winners circle after recent race during Western Harness Racing Assn. meeting at Hollywood Park, Shafter Rhythm, winner of the race named in honor of the bowling group, appears to be counting the house, while driver Ken Carinal, Lyle Reel, Phil Jeffries and owner William Lachenmaier look on.

IN THE Bantam Division, the Torrance Blue Devils fell before Baldwin Hills, 32 to 20. Steve Ferguson scored on a 30-yard run for the initial Tor-rance TD. The second Blue De-vils touchdown came on a five-yard pass-play from Fred Schwanbeck to Milte Kimpel Schwanbeck to Milte Kimpel Schwanbeck to Utfor the from two yards out for the final Torrance score. Garry Musick hit for both Blue Devil conversions.