

PTA The Torrance Council Way

By Mrs. Eugene Laxton

TORRANCE COUNCIL

"Nail Fund" for the C. C. P. T. is in progress with Mrs. Bert Richardson, chairman. Council's goal for this building fund is for each of the units to sell 100 nails to members and all interested in this worthwhile project. Moving day for the C. C. P. T. was Nov. 1 and the new address is 930 Georgia St., Los Angeles.

A legislation workshop will be held November 30 in San Gabriel High School cafeteria. Please contact Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh for tickets which will include dinner. Admission will be $2.00 per person. Communications course will be held at Hamilton School on November 29 and December 6 at 1 p.m.

PARKWAY

Parkway PTA held their monthly meeting with Lt. Colonel Blaine Colburn of the United States Air Force as guest speaker. Colonel Colburn lectures extensively for the service and is a Parkway father. The lecture emphasizes "Discipline in the Space Age." "We are Proud..." is the annual theme for Parkway and each month will denote a particular subject of this theme. November was the "Armed Forces."

RIVIERA

The Riviera Roundup, Mrs. Seth Warden, editor, reprinted the text of The First Thanksgiving Proclamation by William Bradford, governor of the English colony as an example of the true Thanksgiving spirit for its children and parents. Dec. 4 to Dec. 11 we can show this spirit anew with the collection of canned goods for those less fortunate.

ARLINGTON

Arlington PTA participated in a visit to the Educational Materials Building. The trip enabled parents to see how Torrance teachers select reading and visual materials for our children in this modern book supermarket. Civil defense was the topic of the recent unit meeting with Mrs. Wayne Pearson presiding.

NORTH HIGH

The PTA executive board was hostess to visitors for an open board meeting and luncheon which was followed by a tour of the Drivers' Education course which is a new study at North High this year. Mrs. M. H. Spaulding, chairman, announces the annual Christmas board luncheon will be held at Lococo's restaurant in Manhattan Beach on Dec. 14. The next scheduled association meeting will be Dec. 13 at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria.

HOWARD WOOD

PTA board members met

recently at the home of Mrs. Richard Reinhardt, president and the following motions were approved as recommendations to the association. The unit will support the Torrance Scholarship Fund, Torrance Milk Fund and the Dental Health Program. Newly ratified officers were: Mmes. William Campbell, recording secretary, and Leroy Meiser, newsette.

THE POPEYE SHOW... Tom Hatten, TV personality featured in the Popeye Show, comes to Halldale school Nov. 22 with three shows, at 10:15, 11:15 and 1:15 p.m. This is one of the fund raising projects of Halldale PTA, according to Mrs. Glen Patrick, ways and means chairman.

Club Hostess

Mrs. Allen Hofferber was hostess to her club Wednesday evening at her home, 3407 Lariat Lane, Rolling Hills.

In the bridge games following a dessert, the first prize was won by Mrs. Mark Caldwell and second by Mrs. James Weir.

The club's next party will be the annual Christmas party with Mrs. J. H. Hull and Mrs. Howard Huizing as hostesses. The party will be held at the Huizing home.

Mrs. Hofferber's guests were Mmes. James Crockett, C. Albert Smith, Kenneth Boulter, James Weir, J. H. Hull, Richard Brundin, Mark Caldwell and Howard Huizing.

Texas Guests

Mrs. Jerry Beamish and family of Fort Worth, Tex., have spent the past 10 days here with Mr. and Mrs. Donald French, 2309 W. 177th St. Mrs. French's brother, Mr. Beamish, was in San Diego on a business trip.

Marie Shore To Marry Jesse Green

Rev. and Mrs. Vernon L. Shore, 1508 W. Anaheim, Harbor City, announce the engagement and forthcoming wedding of their daughter, Marie, to Jesse A. Green, Texas, is the mother of the future bridegroom.

The wedding will be solemnized Dec. 9 at the Keystone Baptist Church.

The bride-elect was graduated from Narbonne High school in June 1959. She is employed at the Torrance Memorial Hospital.

Her fiancé, a graduate of the Bowie High school, is serving with the United States Navy, stationed in Long Beach.

Shower for Bride-elect

Miss Sally Roberts, who was married to Roy Mabe of Washington, D.C., last evening, was complimented at a personal shower given by her sister, Mrs. Westler Friske at her home, 27202 S. Figueroa last Wednesday evening.

The hostess used pink and white umbrellas in decorating and carried out the party colors in the refreshments.

Attending the party with the honoree and the hostess were the bride's mother, Mrs. William N. Roberts, and Mmes. Harry Bigins, Robert Thompson, Lawrence Helm and William Majeski.

Miss Roberts, who is a hostess with TWA Airlines, stationed in Kansas City, was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by her roommates, Miss Carol Duncan and Miss Jean Martin in Kansas City.

Eta Mu Meets

A business meeting of the Eta Mu Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha was held at the home of Virginia Bry. Discussed was the success of the Oct. 24 fashion show held at the Western Country Club.

A luncheon was held Nov. 14 at the home of Elizabeth Launer. Members and friends attended the recent Nov. 10 Carnation Ball held at the Long Beach Elks Club.

The educational program was presented by Betty Scott, who showed the members how to make and design flowers for tote bags.

From Minnesota

Mr. and Mrs. John Vagle of Duluth, Minn., arrived Friday to spend several days here with Mrs. Vagle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Keeler in Lomita. Today a family reunion honoring the visitors is being held at the Keeler home.

MARIE SHORE
... Future Bride

Dinner Hosts

Recent party hosts at the Marineland restaurant in Palos Verdes were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Anderson of Hollywood Riviera, who entertained at a seafood dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Ira F. Johnson of Long Beach.

In Palm Springs

Spending from Monday through Friday in Palm Springs were Mmes. William Davies, Jr., Harry Campbell and Abe Steinman.

United Nations Contest For Students Announced

Plans for the 36th Annual High School Contest on the United Nations have been announced by Inez Smith, chairman of the education program of the American Association for the United Nations, Harbor Area chapter.

The contest is open to all High School students which includes the ninth grade of the Junior High Schools. Last year, more than 75,000 students from more than 3,000 high schools participated. The contest consists of an examination which tests the student's knowledge of the history and structure of the standing of the issues facing the UN.

The examination is based on two booklets, "The UN - What It Is", and "The UN - What It Does", which are made available to students through the AAUN.

Miss Smith, the Harbor Area chairman, said, "The examination will be given throughout the United States on Jan. 18, 1962. The first prize for the national winner is a trip to Europe, under the sponsorship of the American Youth Hostels, Inc., or $500 toward a college scholarship. Second national prize is a trip to Mexico, also sponsored by AYH, or $200 toward a college scholarship. Third national prize is a trip to New York City and the United Nations. In addition, all three national winners will appear as guests on the March 18 telecast of the "Adlai Stevenson Reports" program.

In addition to the national prizes, the Harbor Area Chapter of the AAUN will present prizes to local winners. These will be, senior high school, $25 U. S. Savings Bond and a book, value $5 which will be donated to his school library in his name; junior high school, $10 in U. S. Savings Stamps and a book, value $5 which will be given to the library in his name.

In the contest last year, Rosanne Minister of the Convent of the Sacred Heart of Menlo Park, was a national finalist, and Daniel Bell of Beverly Hills high school was listed in the national report. From the Harbor Area, Phyllis Monroe of Marymount School, Palos Verdes, received the High School award, and Alan Spesak, Stephen White Junior High School, received the Junior High award.

Soroptimist Conference Slated Here

The 1963 spring conference of the Pacific regional Soroptimist Federation of America will be held at the Pen & Quill Hotel in Manhattan Beach, announces conference chairman Mrs. Louise M. Mailoux of Manhattan Beach.

The successful bid for a South Bay site, which opposed a projected locale in San Diego, was made by the Soroptimist Club of Manhattan Beach at the recent convention in Palm Springs, where the club's representatives were headed by president Mrs. James Ferryman.

Some 800 members of the international business-executive women's organization are expected to attend the three-day event in mid-April of 1963, which will headquarter at the new Pen & Quill Hotel.

Students wishing to participate in the contest may register with the teacher in charge of the contest at the school which they attend. The name of this teacher and other information may be obtained by inquiring at the school office.
