

'Engineer Bill' to See Local Kiddies Saturday

Engineer Bill Stulla, star of KHH-TV's "Cartoon Express," will be at the Boys Market at Redondo Beach Boulevard and Van Ness on Saturday at 2 p.m.

Stulla, a veteran of both radio and TV, dons full trainman's wardrobe each day as he beams this program to the huge moppets from a set filled with model trains and giant blow-ups of modern locomotives. "Cartoon Express," one of TV's oldest and most successful children shows, can be seen each night from 6:30 to 7 and is running under a full head of steam into its seventh year. The program, with a simple format of children, plus cartoons, plus "Engineer Bill" equal a half-hour of wholesome entertainment.

The thrill of railroading, of riding and driving the huge moppets from a set filled with model trains and giant blow-ups of modern locomotives.

School Given

New Projector

Presentation of a movie projector to the Welteria Elementary School has been approved by the school's PTA, according to Mrs. Robert Schrauben, president.

Mrs. Schrauben said donation of the machine to the school had been approved also by the Board of Education.

The equipment will be used to show educational films at the school.

Van Ness in Gardena this Saturday at 2 p.m. for the thrill of their lives and to meet their TV hero, Engineer Bill, in person, store officials urge.

New Offices of Hayden, Stone Open Tomorrow

The new Rolling Hills Estates office at 27777 Silver Spur Road of Hayden, Stone and Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange, will hold open house from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday. Refreshments will be served from 5 to 6 p.m.

Shirley R. Chilton, manager, and the staff of registered representatives, will be hosts.

The new office — Hayden, Stone's eighth in California — is located in the new Peninsula Center Shopping District, which is in the heart of the Palos Verdes peninsula. The office will serve all of the South Bay area.

The office has most modern equipment including Quotrons, the miracle-memory instantaneous quotation machines, and translux projections of the moving tapes of both the New York Stock Exchange and the American Stock Exchange.

THE OFFICE also has the Dow Jones News Service and a reference library that includes the special reports and bulletins from Hayden, Stone's New York Research Dept., plus standard reference works such as Standard and Poor reports. Telephone numbers of the new office are FR 8-8421 and SP 2-3551.

The company's three West Coast General partners, Lloyd C. Young, Charles T. Jawetz, and Joseph A. Field Jr., and the managers and account
