High School Cafetorium, Blossom Lane and Manhattan Beach Boulevard.

THE YOUTH BAND, directed by James Van Dyck, is composed of 45 young high school age musicians from the Torrance area.

The band's program will consist of the "March of the Toys," by Victor Herbert, Frescobaldi's "Toccata," "The Sound of Music," by Richard Rodgers, "Ariane" overture by Boyer, and two traditional Christmas numbers, "White Christmas" and Leroy Anderson's "A Christmas Festival."

Solo and ensemble selections will be performed by Elbert Deffebach, Barry Anderson, Kenneth Fink, Ricky Savage, Barbara Wilson, Mary Titus, and Dione Rivers.

THE ORCHESTRA concert will be conducted by William Heffernan, a member of the string section of the Los Angeles Philharmonic. The Youth Orchestra also has about 45 young local musicians of junior and high school age.

Both concerts are free to the public.

... Prom

Pastor Sets Annual Talk On Missions

The Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church will hear their pastor, Robert A. Wells, at both the 8:30 and 10:50 a.m. services on Sunday. He will bring his annual message on the life of Miss Lottie Moon. The subject will be "Who Hath Despised the Day of Small Things."

"The heroic challenge of a lone lady missionary in China has brought forth mighty results. The Southern Baptist Convention has a goal of $9,390,000 for this Christmas offering for foreign missions. This is a 14 per cent increase over 1960," Mr. Wells stated. This week is being observed as a week of prayer for foreign missions."

Mr. Wells has just returned from Fort Worth, Tex., where he attended the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Radio and Television Commission. He is the California representative on this commission that produces five radio and two television programs. "The Baptist Hour" is heard on more than 500 radio stations each week. "The Answer" is viewed on over 120 television stations each week.

Quarterly Meeting of Welfare Council Slated

"A Planning Profile for the Harbor Area" will be the subject of the quarterly meeting Wednesday of the Harbor Area Welfare Planning Council.

"This program," comments Dr. Kenneth Reeves, program chairman of the council, "will discuss the changes which have taken place in the kinds of people who live in the various cities and communities of the Harbor Area, and should be of special interest to those who are working with people and planning to meet their future needs."

The presentation will be made by Lloyd Street, assistant director of research, and Dr. Genevieve Carter, associate executive director of the Welfare Planning Council, Los Angeles Region.

With the recent release of some of the more detailed social characteristics of the 1960 census, this analysis will bring to light overall trends in the population by such characteristics as income, education, age, and race.

IT WILL PROVIDE a special profile of youth population and juvenile problems, the aged, and those in their productive years.

It will also discuss the image of the various cities and communities within the Harbor Area as well as the kind of growth and change they may go through in the decade ahead.

To Sing in 'Messiah'

Jeanne Noble, 5314 Calle D Ricardo, will be a vocalist in the 46th annual presentation in Stockton of Handel's "Messiah," Dec. 10 at 3:30 p.m. in the city's civic auditorium.

The University of the Pacific freshman is a member of the University Chorus, which will combine with the Stockton College Chorus and Stockton Chorale for the event. Four noted soloists will be featured in the performance, and the Stockton Symphony Orchestra will provide the musical background.

Included in the 14 scheduled choruses will be "Their Sound Is Gone Out Into All Lands" and the difficult "Worthy Is the Lamb, Amen."
