Theater Group Planning Gala New Year's Party

"Auntie Mame," a play written by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee based on the best-selling novel by Patrick Dennis, has fast become one of the most popular plays since its first presentation in 1956 in New York City. The Torrance area will have a prolonged visit when "Auntie Mame" begins with its first performance on Dec. 15 at Chapel Theatre, located in Smith Bros. Fish Shanty shopping center on Pacific Coast Highway in Torrance.

Chapel Theatre players and crews are hard at work piecing together sets and scenery under the direction of Steve Sands, resident technical director of the theater, who states there will be approximately 11 sets with 23 scene changes. According to Bob McCaman and Don Gish, who are director and producer respectively, rehearsals are progressing at top speed, and all are anticipating an exciting and satisfying opening night.

TOGETHER WITH fast action dialogue and constant comedy situations, "Auntie Mame" promises to have her audiences at the very edge of their chairs throughout the entire performances anticipating the hilarity to follow.

The cast consists of a wide range of talent from Greater Torrance area including: Thelma Ledwidge, Torrance, as Auntie Mame; Jarl Victor, Palos Verdes Estates, as Lindsay; Jacquie Smalley, Rolling Hills Estates, as Vera; Bob Poser, Gardena, as Pat the boy; Phil DiGioia, Hawthorne, as Pat the man; Libbie Stephans as Agnes Gooch; Ron Wright as Mr. O'Bannion; and Jim Wilson, as Beau, plus many others.

THROUGH the combined efforts of Smith Bros. Fish Shanty, Chapel Theatre is able to provide a gala New Year's Eve for the audience on Dec. 31. The order of events include: dinner at Fish Shanty; seeing "Auntie Mame" at Chapel Theatre; return to Fish Shanty for hors d'oeuvres, and party festivities. Reservations are now being taken for the gala evening.
