

MRS. RUBEN PATRICK CORDOVA
... Married Nov. 11
(Portrait by Seeman)

Mr., Mrs. R. P. Cordova Return from Honeymoon

In a high noon nuptial mass and ceremony on Saturday, Nov. 11, at the St. Catherine Labourer Catholic Church, Miss Carol Lee Breske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome F. Breske, 5201 Towers St., plighted her marriage vows with Ruben Patrick Cordova. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Cordova of Belen, New Mexico.

Rev. William Hollinger officiated at the double ring marriage which was solemnized at the altar decorated with bronze chrysanthemums. Miss Mary Hanf, organist, played the wedding marches and the "Ave Maria."

Mr. Breske escorted his daughter down the aisle. She wore a waltz length gown of peau de soie. The fitted bodice had a bateau neckline and long tapered sleeves. The full skirt was ornamented with lace and sequins. A pearl princess crown held the illusion veil and the bride carried a cascade of gardenias, orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Rosemary Catherine Taylor, wearing salmon colored peau de soie, was the maid of honor. Her bouquet was of salmon colored carnations.

Mrs. Jeanne Schneider was the bridesmaid. She also wore a salmon colored peau de soie sheath with a puffed overskirt. Salmon carnations formed her bouquet.

Raymond Pena was best man and Raymond Cordova was the usher.

Immediately following the wedding, the 100 guests greeted the couple at a reception at the bride's home. The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Carmel and Monterey. They are now at home at 2116 Vanderbilt Lane.

The bride was graduated from North High School in 1960. Her husband is a graduate of the Belen, N.M., High School.

Rose Degree Bestowed in Ceremony

Mrs. Ray Millhouse, a member of Xi Zeta Lambda, was given the Order of the Rose degree by the chapter in a beautiful candlelight ceremony held at a Hawthorne restaurant on Nov. 28.

Mrs. Ray Millhouse was presented with the story of her life entitled "It Could Be You," by her sister, Mrs. John Wise. Guests present were Mrs. Lola Abrams, president of the Bay Area Council; Mrs. Kitty Milledge, sponsor of South Bay Area Council; Mmes. Robert Milligan, Blanche MacCallum, Homer Webster, Ted Eddy and Ruth Smith, members - at - large; Mary Manning, transferee from Brigham, N. Y., and Fern Vail, society editor.

Mrs. Frank McIntyre was installed as recording secretary.

At the last meeting of Xi Zeta Lambda, Mrs. Bud Whitely, president, presented the chapter with a "girl of the year" trophy.

The next regular meeting will be held Dec. 4 in San Pedro at the home of Mrs. Eric Swansson.

Miss Bolen Honored at Tea Party

A tea party, a fantasy for every little girl, when she don's her mother's dress, high heels, hats and gloves and uses her mother's cosmetics, was the delightful way Mary Lee Bolen celebrated her seventh birthday. The charming young ladies arrived at the R. D. Bolen home of Torrance Blvd. for tea, which was "poured" by Mrs. Bolen and consisted of pink lemonade and punch. Fancy tea sandwiches and dainty cookies were served. Guests were seated at flower bedecked card tables.

Several games were played and then Mrs. Bolen presented each guest with a candle which she decorated with sequins and took home as her party favor.

Joining Mary Lee for the tea party were Lisa Schwartz, Marsha Hatter, Andrea Bravley, Stacy Barrington, Jeanne Bender, Linda Schwartz, Corine Whittington, Susan Riggs, and Janine Barnett.

Carol Massie, who couldn't attend, sent a gift.

Cardinal's Yule Party On Dec. 17

The Cardinal's Christmas Party for Children will be held this year in the Beverly Hilton International Room on Sunday, Dec. 17, 2 p.m.

Invitations are in the mail to patrons, patronesses and co-sponsoring organizations.

The delightful event is the only party each year personally sponsored by His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre. His guests of honor are tiny tots from orphanages, nurseries and Catholic foster homes.

Proceeds provide a happier Christmas for thousands of Southland needy families through the cardinal's Christmas Giving Program.

It is through the generosity and good auspices of patrons and co-sponsoring organizations that the party's full purpose is achieved — that of providing Christmas funds for the poor.

Last year 13,623 children and adults throughout Los Angeles, Orange, Santa Barbara and Ventura counties received Christmas assistance as a result of the party. Total receipts last year amounted to $33,439.

Contributions may be sent to the Cardinal's Christmas Party, 1400 W. Ninth St., Los Angeles 15. Donors will be acknowledged in the party program. All donations are tax deductible.

Twin Mothers Honored at Stork Shower

Two mothers of twins, Mrs. Robert Jackson and Mrs. John Adams, were hostesses at a surprise stork shower for two other mothers of twins, Mrs. Andy Meier and Mrs. Mac McKean, Wednesday evening at the Jackson home, 2587 Harbor Sight, Rolling Hills.

A profusion of pink roses was used in decorating for the party. The cake centerpiece was decorated in blue and pink booties.

Several appropriate games were played before the two honor guests opened their gifts.

The hostesses served a desert course using their pink and white colors.

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sleeth, Jr., and sons, Mark and Jeffrey, of Welteria, had as their Thanksgiving Day dinner guests, Mr. Sleeth's mother, Mrs. R. S. Sleeth and Miss Mabel Conger.

WSCS Will Meet Dec. '14

Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church will meet Thursday, Dec. 14, at 9:40 p.m. A prayer session will be followed by a business meeting and program at 10 a.m. Mrs. Lois Balsley will give the worship service and the program will be presented by the Rachael and Dorcas Circles.

Anne Coulter of South High and Jerri Lynn Creekmore of North High, exchange students to Turkey last year, will show slides made during their stay there. Mrs. Clare McCown will be the vocalist.

A Christmas luncheon will be served by the Sara Circle at 12:30.

Guild's Yule Luncheon Dec. 13

Ladies Guild of the Central Evangelical Church will meet at the guild hall, Marcelina and Arlington, on Wednesday, Dec. 13, at 12 noon for their annual Christmas luncheon. Visitors are welcome.

In Phoenix

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fulton, 2086 Lincoln, spent the recent holiday and weekend in Phoenix, Ariz., with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Thorsen, and family.

United Nations To Be Topic at AAUW Meeting

"The UN, Its Future and Ours" will be the subject of a talk by Mrs. Alexis Jacobowsky at the meeting of the International Relations study group of the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch of the American Association of University Women. The meeting will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Robert N. Morton, 3212 Anchovy Avenue, San Pedro, at 7:30.

Mrs. Jacobowsky, a resident of Long Beach, was born in Lincoln, Nebraska, and graduated from the University of Nebraska, having majored in music, education, and modern languages. She has also done post-graduate work at the University of California in Los Angeles.

In 1957, at the invitation of the United States State Department and UNESCO, she visited the UN Regional Fundamental Education School for Latin America at Patzcuaro, Mexico, and in 1958 she was a recipient of the Woman of the Year Award by the City of Long Beach for distinguished service in the field of United Nations activities.

The committee for the tea is headed by Mrs. Joseph Jay, hospitality chairman, with co-chairman, Mrs. W. H. Freudentien, in charge of decorations. Assisting will be Mmes. Jerome Prizlow, Joseph Rensch, Don C. Root, Richard C. Hoy, and R. L. Wattenbarger. Other committee members in charge of refreshments and invitations include Mmes. George Corbett, J. W. Beauchamp, Wm. Gottenberg, Andrew Hammett, J. W. Groeneweg, Richard Linde, C. N. Nansen, R. A. Schausler, Pryor Randall, Richard Smith, J. J. Wall, and Louis Kaplan.

Club Donates To USO Fund

Centinela Valley Reserve Officers' Assn. Ladies' Club has voted to send a check for $50 to the San Pedro U.S.O. this Christmas. This is an annual custom of the club, so that men and women of the Armed Forces, who are spending the holidays away from home may have a free telephone call to relatives on Christmas Day.

The club's own Christmas party will be held this year in the Aviation Room of the Thunderbird Hotel, El Segundo, on Sunday, Dec. 10. The committee in charge of planning and reservations is headed by Mrs. Elmer A. Harris, Torrance; Mrs. Bud I. Heslion, Torrance; and Mrs. William E. Boell, Torrance.
