Amateurs Present Christmas Program

Hampton Players are hoping to establish an annual custom this year with their first production of a children's Christmas show, for the weekends of Dec. 8 and 15.

"The Birds' Christmas Carol" is the name of the full length play, based on a story by Kate Douglas Wiggin.

Director Lyle Smith announces a cast of adults consisting of Jack Drake, Mary Billingham, Connie Farrell, Paul Crowley of Hollywood Riviera, and Edna Irwin. The children's complement is made up of the following: Debbie Glaister, Peggy Dorsey, Matthew Mackenzie, Joan Liepman, Michael Bernard, Lee Ann Mason, Bert Malson, and Robin Atwood of Torrance.

Performances are scheduled to be given at 7:30 on Dec. 8, 15, 16 and 17, and at 1:30 p.m. on Dec. 16 and 17. There will be a Christmas tree in the lobby, and after each performance the children in the audi-

Theater To Stage 'Drunkard'

The Drawing Room Theater, under the sponsorship of the Bay Cities Civic Theater Assn., is currently in rehearsal for their upcoming production of "The Drunkard," which will open at their theater, 112½ N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach. According to Charles Rothlein, director, all parts in the melodrama have been cast, with the exception of the villain, Lawyer Cribbs. To quote Rothlein, "We just can't seem to find anyone nasty and mean enough to fill this role. Would all local villains please contact me by calling the theater, 379-1936."

"THE DRUNKARD" and an accompanying 10-act olio open at the theater New Year's Eve, and in addition to the show, there will be a midnight buffet supper, hats and noisemakers. Reservations are being taken now at the theater, 112½ N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach, telephone 379-1936, between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., and 7 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. There are still a limited number of tables available.

SOME OF THE local favorites cast in the show are Al Schneider, Edwin Gangel, Ethel Dugan, Bob Adamson, Phyllis Foss, Ken White, and many others.

The Drawing Room Theater is drawing actors from all over the entire southwest area, including Santa Monica and Long Beach, as it is the largest Theater-in-the-round in the area. Theater of this type affords an unusual treat for both actors and audiences, Rothlein said.

Savings Firm Tops $1 Billion

Home Savings and Loan Assn. announced it has passed $1 billion in assets—the first association in the history of the American savings and loan industry to attain this magic figure.

Howard Ahmanson, chairman of the board, reported that at the close of Home's fiscal year on Nov. 30, the association's assets totaled $1,015,940,595.

"We are proud to become the first and only savings and loan company in the nation to have topped the billion dollar figure," said Ahmanson. "Proud because it demonstrates the dynamic growth of the area in which we live and do business—Southern California—and because it is tangible evidence of the great confidence this community has in our institution and the savings and loan industry."

ALTHOUGH IT required more than 72 years to gain its first billion dollars in resources, at its present rate of growth it will achieve its second billion in less than seven years.
