

Sportsmans Club Seeking Areas For Philanthropic Projects

The Hollywood Riviera Sportsman's Club, which sponsors a number of youth activities in the Riviera, met Wednesday night at the American Legion Hall in Redondo Beach to explore additional areas for the club's philanthropic efforts. President Jay Freer announces a budget of $500 for the coming year to carry on its activities. Plans are being made for the club's annual New Year's Eve party with Alan Watt as chairman.

A chartered bus trip is planned for Dec. 20 with 40 club members attending an ice hockey game at the L. A. Sports Arena. Meeting Thursday, Dec. 7, at the Plush Horse Restaurant was the Hollywood Riviera Rotary Club. Principal speaker at the luncheon meeting was Carl Terizian of Los Angeles, goodwill ambassador from the United States to countries of Southeast Asia, the Middle East and Europe. His talk was directed at fighting communism. Jack Farber was program chairman. THE PRE-PROVISIONAL League of Women Voters of Torrance met Monday evening Dec. 4 at the home of Mrs. Robert R. Christensen, 121 Via Alameda, Hollywood Riviera, to lay plans for the organization of the new Torrance unit. Further organizational meetings will take place in January and February. An Orientation Tea will be held in January to acquaint women of the area with the league's many activities. The Nite Circle of the Riviera Methodist Church will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Hans Holborn, 412 Via Los Miradores, Hollywood Riviera, for a Christmas party. Mrs. John B. Berthelet, circle chairman, announced it will be a dessert meeting with members exchanging their family Christmas traditions.

at Resurrection Lutheran Church, Hollywood Riviera, had a smorgasbord Christmas party Tuesday at 6:30 in the church hall. The program titled, "Christmas Gifts," was planned by Mrs. Charles Hansen and included presentations by the choir and readings by Mrs. Carol Schmidt, Gerald de Jonge, Mrs. Ruth Hansen, and Charles Hansen. The Riviera Bridge Club sponsored by the Hollywood Riviera Homeowners Assn., now has four afternoon sections which meet every Monday, and two evening sections which meet the first Friday and second Saturday of each month. Mrs. Samuel Conte is club chairman and anyone wishing information about joining the group may call Mrs. Conte at FR 5-0811.

Wednesday evening, Dec. 6, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 214 Ave. I, in the Riviera Village. One hundred members are needed for the lodge to obtain a charter and have an election of officers. James Kocas has been appointed membership chairman. Men in Hollywood Riviera interested in joining may call Wesley Muzik, FR 5-6918, for information.

ELSEWHERE around the Riviera — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Geiser, 151 Via Los Miradores, are looking forward to a visit from Mr. Geiser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Geiser Sr., of Portland, Ore. They will arrive Dec. 15 to spend the Christmas holidays and will be visiting a number of relatives and friends throughout the south land. Leaving the Riviera are Maj. and Mrs. Phillip Chernis and family of 156 Via Los Altos. Their new home will be Washington, D.C. The well-traveled Chernis family previously lived in Germany and Turkey.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burbank, 133 Via Sego, had a dinner party Saturday evening Dec. 9. Enjoying the get-together of past and present neighbors were Mr. and Mrs. William "Bud" Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Katherman, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Overpeck, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Conrady, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cowhard.

TWO HOLLYWOOD Riviera parakeets are now famous! You will soon see them in a new book. The excited authoress is Buelah Taylor of 128 Via Sego who has just sold her first book to a New York publisher. It's called, "Nickie and Sue, Two Lovable Parakeets," and is the true story of the adventures of her talking birds. Buelah is a school teacher. "Nickie" attended second grade at school with her for a whole year and now has a fabulous vocabulary. The book, written especially for children, will be out soon after the first of the year. In the meantime Buelah is busily working on a sequel. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pratt, 5625 Paseo de Pablo, who have adopted a new baby. It's a boy! Dale Earnest was born Aug. 4. The proud parents waited 14 years for this blessed event.

MRS. MITCHELL YELICH, 4812 Paseo de las Tortugas, served coffee at her home last week for three new neighbors: Mrs. Reed Stone, Mrs. James Brideweiser, and Mrs. Paul Turkheimer. Meeting the newcomers were Mrs. John Haidinger, Mrs. Joseph Manning, Mrs. Richard Forrest, Mrs. John Simpson, Mrs. William Thomas, Mrs. William Luzan, and Mrs. Richard Crane. New Neighbor Dept. — Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gillette, 140 Via Sego, are newcomers to the Riviera. They are from New York but lived in Inglewood for a while before coming here. Ken is an electronic engineer and is with Nortronics in P.V. The Gillettes have two children, Craig, 2, and baby Laura, 3 months.

THE RIVIERA Little League (president is Paul E. Kent) is busy looking for a new site as it must soon vacate Kissell Field where they have played for so many seasons. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shade, 133 Via los Altos, are spending Christmas vacation at Big Bear. Hope they will say "Hello" to former Rivierans, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hamm, who have gone into business up there.

Insurance Men To Hear State President Talk

Torrance area professional life insurance men will hear Herman J. Wulfsberg Jr., president of the California Assn. of Life Underwriters, when the local Harbor Assn. of Life Underwriters holds its monthly luncheon meeting at the Palms Restaurant on Friday. Wulfsberg, president of the largest state organization of life insurance men and women in the United States, is district manager for Northwestern National Life Insurance Co. in Long Beach. He was elected to his present office at the 6,200-man organization's annual meeting last June.

According to Harbor Assn. President Newell Larson, Provident Life and Accident Co. representative in Torrance, the California leader will discuss state and national affairs at Friday's meeting.

Retiring president Mrs. Charles Caldwell presided at the December meeting of the Marymount Alumnae Assn. on the Palos Verdes campus of Marymount College.
