DECEMBER 28. 1961

Patricia Taylor Becomes Bride of E. L. Wannagat

Miss Patricia Ann Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald R. Taylor, 24223 Neece Ave., Torrance, be-came the bride of Ernest Lawrence Wannagat in a one o'dock compony at the St Lawrence Wannagat in a one o'clock ceremony at the St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church on Saturday, Dec. 2. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sim-mons of Westover, Pa. The Rev. Charles Ara officiated at the marriage and Mrs. Mary Stoeger played the nuptial background music and the wedding marches. Mr. Taylor escorted his

Mrs. Sleeth Hostess to Bridge Club

Mrs. Robert Sleeth, Jr., en-tertained her bridge club at its annual Christmas party on its annual Christmas party on Dec. 19 at her home, 2425 Los Cadona in Walteria. A cocktail hour was held followed by a pot-luck char-coal broiled steak dinner. Special pre-dinner drinks were prepared by Mr. Sleeth who also broiled the steaks. The buffet table was decor-ated with poinsettias and red ccandles. Pyracantha and red candles. Pyracantha and red candles were also on the in-dividual tables. In the bridge games, follow-Ing dinner, first prize went to Mrs. Robert Clayton and sec-ond to Mrs. John Sass.

Attending the party were Mmes. John Minech, Donna Barkdull, Robert Clayton, E. V. Winkelbauer, John Sass, Alan Lucas, and C. A. Wood-

Announcing the Opening of ... TORRANCE SCHOOL FASHION DESIGN 1516 CRAVENS AVENUE FA 8-0890

ALTERATIONS

daughter to the altar. She wore a gown of imported Spanish lace over white spanish face over white satin. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of pearls and crystals and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Laurelie Nan Abbott was the maid of honor. She was gowned in emerald green chiffon and taffeta and carried white carnations. Paul Karosi performed the duties of best man and the guests were seated by Robert Paul Williams. Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Torrance YWCA. The new home is in Torrance. The bride was graduated from St. Anthony's High school in Long Beach and is employed by the Pacific Tele-phone Co. guests were seated by Robert

Her husband received his education in Pennsylvania. He is now serving with the United States Navy aboard the USS Mathews.

Holiday Party

Mrs. Ellis Owens entertain-ed her bridge club at its Christmas luncheon last Tuesday at her home, 17701 Falda

Ave. After the luncheon, a gift exchange was held and the afternoon was spent playing bridge. Mrs. E. A. Miles held high score and Mrs. Lou high score and Mrs. Lou Fernley was second. Mrs. Owens' guests were Mmes. Ruth Richards, Albert Isen, Margaret Jones, Bertha Crook, Nell Smith, Miles and Fernley. Mrs. Richards will be the club's next hostess.

MRS. ERNEST L. WANNAGAT (Photography by Stanfords)

Dianas Hold Board Meet

school children at Garden Valley by Santa Claus. Redondo Beach Dianas, California Federation of Wom-en's Clubs, Marina District, Valley by Santa Claus. The annual George Wells party was held at the Eagles Hall in Redondo Beach on Dec. 20. Diana members served luncheon to the chil-dren attending the party. The Dianas received a Christmas gift from their lit-tle adopted Indian boy John Houly. who is attending Junior Membership, Christ-mas board meeting wa_ held this week at the home of Mrs. Charles Bougamont, 417 S. Broadway, Redondo Beach. A Christmas dinner was prepared by the club's co-ordinators, Mmes. Charles Bougamont, Curt Richard-son and Don Beard. Mrs. Paul Taulon president introduced Houly, who is attending school in Arizona. Taylor, president, introduced guests Mmes. Ernest Butt, Al Lukes and Helen Busse, Following the meeting, gifts were exchanged by everyone present.

Notables Here

Dining at the Marineland Restaurant on the Palos Ver-des peninsula were Ambassa-dor Maung Maung Soe of Burma and Najdat Fathi Saf-

... Kirkpatrick (Continued from Page 17) mas cookies in red and green

A modernistic Christmas A modernistic Christmas tree of silver pine tied with silver dollars was received by Mrs. Kirkpatrick from her

Mrs. Kirkpatrick frow her fellow employes at the Cali-fornia Bank. A manzanita money tree was received by Mr. Kirkpatrick from em-ployes of his company. The guest included Mr. Kirkpatrick's mother, Mrs. Dovie Kirkpatrick'. Messrs, and Mmes. Harold G. Frentz, Gale Gardner, W. Holman Howe, Clarence E. Clark, Leonard Peterson, William Patterson, Joseph LeClerq, C. B. Mitchell, Ray Donaldson, Richard Slert, R. E. Taylor, John Baldock, Ben Hensley, Gerald MacDonald, Robert Sherrett, John Rumery, John John Baldock, Ben Hensley, Gerald MacDonald, Robert Sherrett, John Rumery, John Sparks, James Collins, Carl Carlson, Everett Eaton, Rob-ert Petrie, Yves Jelanson, Jack Hahn, Loren Olson, Loren Maddux, Axel Johnson. Also, Messrs. and Mmes. Q. P. Lookinland, James W. Dick, Frank Campbell, Kyle Bacon, James Sutherland, Ralph Ru-graff, Alvin Greene, D a le Kerr, Al Tracy, Robert Parks, Paul Sturdivant, Darwin Par-rish, Howard Dunn, Donald Sandmeyer, George Courtney, Nick Drale, Robert Menefee, Joe Wilson, Charles Reigel, Forrest Howsley, Tom M. Hadsell, Alex Bruce, Norman Thomas, W. E. Bowen, Charles Kearns, Wyllis Copenhagen, Floyd Atkins, Robert Poe, Robert Bernard, Norman Ol-son, Jerry M. Brown, Jules Roeland, E. B. Bramlett, and Dean Sears.

Dean Sears. Others attending were Carrie Cole, Betty Mmes. Carrie Cole, Betty Goodman, Bess Tufts, Vi Gen-try, Lucy Saulf, Emma Chris-tianson, Gertrude Schwartz, uanson, Gertrude Schwartz, Veva Robinson, Blanche Fits, Susie Blair, Daisy Bowers, Misses E d n a Mullin, Mary Herron, Tillie Forster, and Helen Rodgers. Also on hand for the cele-bration were the couple's three sons, Donald, Harold, and George Kirkpatrick. A graddaughter. Shell Erin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don-ald Kirkpatrick, was a special must

Mrs. Crooker

Hostess at Cookie Party Mrs. William -Crooker en-tertained at an annual Christmas cookie exchange at her Miraleste home last Wednesday evening. The dining table was beautifully decorated in white and gold ceramic angels. At the end of the table stood a three foot white and gold cherub. The centerpiece was flanked by white tapers in white and gold holders. Each guest brought a plate of her favorite holiday cook-ies and copies of the recipe ies and copies of the recipe to be shared with other guests. Guests and their favorite cookies were Mrs. Richard Williams, "Hermit" and Mrs. Everett Odell, chocolate mac-aroons, both of Rolling Hills; Mrs. Jerry Fagan and her mother, Mrs. Carolyn Ter-hune of Miraleste brought Swedish Rösettes and Date Nut bars. Mrs. William Mc-Cormack brought Walnut cookies; Mrs. Ed Rowlett, Sr., baked pralines and Mrs. Ed guests.

cookies; Mrs. Ed Rowlett, Sr., baked pralines and Mrs. Ed Rowlette, Jr., Mexican Wed-ding Bell cookies; Mrs. William Crooker, Sr., of Canada, who is spending the winter here, brought roll decorated cookies; Mrs. Jess-Dixon of Pasadena, peanut butter cookies; and Mrs. Ken-neth Nichols of Pasadena neth Nichols of Pasadena brought ginger bread Santas. Mrs. Crooker had baked a Swedish pecan meringue

Everything From a Hair Pin to a Hair Drye 1328 Sartori (at Marcelina) Downtown Torrance ing Hills Plaza Store, 101 Hwy. at Cren

FOR THE ORPHANS . . . As their final chore on the Palos Verdes Estates campus of Marymount College before they left for their Christmas vacation, Juanita Watson, left and Lynn Moore of Torrance put the finishing touches on the tree of 100 dolls, which the Marymount students, in observance of an annual custom, will present to the Los Angeles Orphanage.

Open House Hospital Guild Takes For Board Part in Civic Events Members

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dean entertained the board mem-bers of the Torrance Junior Woman's club and their husbands last Sunday afternoon at an open house at their home, 22034 Ladeene Ave. Mrs. Dean is president of the Junior Club.

The table was covered with a Christmas cloth and centered by a miniature decorated Christmas tree flanked by green tapers. A punch bowl was enjoyed as well as a buffet.

buffet. Attending the party were Drs. and Mmes. Gerson Ja-cobson and Joseph Bay; Messrs, and Mmes. Jerry Sal-adin. John Stokley, T. J. adin, John Stokley, T. J. Burchfield, Robert Valencia, Richard Dorothy, Richard Oliver, Edward Aiken, and Ronald Forestal.

Christmas Party For Children

Peggy and Danny Gans, children of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Gans, 1011 Kornblum, enter-tained a group of their young friends at an old fashioned Christmas party at their home Wednesday atternoon. The children gathered around the fireplace where Christmas stories were told as well as the customs of Christmas stories were told as well as the customs of many lands at Christmas. Enjoying the afternoon with Peggy and Danny were Barbara Phillips. Wendy Triplitt, Bobble and Nancy Davies, Sheryl and Linda Lenk, Jane Foster. Douglas Tilley, David Heath, Bryan and Gary Meyers, Linda and Lisa Roberts.

Increasing participation in civic events has marked re-cent activities of the Bay Harbor Osteopathic Hospital is planning two special sew-Guild. The volunteer organ-ization, headed by Mrs. Van Lisman of San Pedro, has participated in numerous community projects as well as pursuing its goal of aiding hospital improvements and development. Plans for 1962 include an is planning two special sew-ing events in January to pre-pare puppets and dolls for children in the pediatric ward of the hospital and staged a special Christmas party for hospital employees, nurses and doctors. The sew-ing events are scheduled Jan. 9 and 23 at the home of Mrs. Lisman, 1192 Eighteenth Street, San Pedrol More than 30 leaders of

More than 30 headers of the volunteer group attended the annual Guild Christmas luncheon at the home of President Lisman, who was assisted by Mrs. Peter De Vriendt, Mrs. Clarence Kell-man and Mrs. Ted Spring-field. Mrs. Richard Rozendal of Torrance was in charge of the hospital Christmas party. Guild members will hold their next regular meeting at the Tasman Sea in San Plans for 1962 include an expanded program of general civic activities, according to Mrs. Lisman, who points out that women of the organiza-tion took an active part in the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce givic lunchaon at Commerce civic luncheon at the Hacienda, with Mrs. Jack Hurley decorating a Guild table in the "California Christmas" theme. In addition, the group has taken a leading part in pro-taken a leading part in pro-viding equipment for a new "intensive care" unit at the the Tasman Sea in San Pedro, Jan. 15. It will be a noon luncheon event. Mrs. Charles Crawford is program chairman. Bay Harbor Osteopathic Hos-pital, now being developed;

Past Matrons, Patrons Stage Christmas Party

Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Past matrons and patrons of the Torrance Chapter, Or-Clark, Long Beach; Mr. and der of the Eastern Star, with Mrs. M. J. Edwards, Los Antheir husbands and wives gathered at the Palms res-taurant recently for the an-nual Christmas dinner party. The welcome address was geles; Messrs. and Mmes. David Jones, Ernest Mosher, Clyde Satterfield and George Simpson of Lomita; Jack Miller, Wallace West, and Ludwig Miller, Yucaipa, and given by Florence Viellenave, president of the past matrons George Anderson, Gardena. club. Others asked to speak were Carolyn Pennington, worthy matron; John Pen-nington, worthy patron; Frances Reisert, junior past matron, and Ray Shaffer, junior next patron;

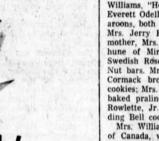

David McVey, pre-med stu-dent at the University of Arizona, is spending h is Christmas vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McVey, Arriving this week are two of his classmates, Ronnie Burris and Tom Shackleford, who will spend a week here. The junior past patron. In the games that follow ed, prizes were won by Hel-ene Miller of Yucaipa and Fay Parks of Torrance. Attending the party were Messrs, and Mmes. Leonard Babcock, Fred Bever, Fred Cook, Archer Lewis, Ray Lougee, H. mer Morgan, Gor-don Mothersell, Edward Mor-Dinner Guests gan, Fay Parks, John Pen-nington, Charles Ruppel, Ray Shaffer, Vincent Viellenave. Others were Mrs. Francis

Home From UA

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

Bright and gay ... colorful and friendly ... this bow of good cheer fies up a bundle of best wishes from all of us here at McDonald's to all of you. We're appreciative of the good fortune to live and to work in a community such as this where so very, of you have honored us with your friendship ronage. May your holidays be merry - and may your fondest hopes be fully realized in the coming New Year!

17305 SOUTH CRENSHAW — Corner of Artesia and Crenshaw

in Torrance.

and Quill. The philanthropy chairman, Mrs. Ted Kerwin, purchased toys at the Garden Valley As-sociation tby party; these toys will be presented to the wat of the Iraq Embassy, who recently spent an afternoon

dist.