

EC Cagers Surprise LACC in Sam Barry Classic

Hot as a pistol, El Camino College coasted over Los Angeles City College 102 to 84 in the opening round of the Sam Barry basketball tournament at Glendale on Tuesday.

Forward Ron Dinnel scorched the nets for 22 points to lead the Warrior quintet in its first game of the year. With four men hitting in double figures, the Tribe came back from a 52-50 halftime deficit to advance into the quarter-finals against Pierce, 72-68 conqueror of San Diego.

Dan Karavas and Mike Schrader gunned in 19 digits apiece, while Paul Ingleman, rapidly becoming one of EC's most valuable assets, chipped in with 16 points.

It was Camino's highest point total of the season and the victory was sweet revenge for the Indians. Earlier in the season, Los Angeles had been behind 31 to 23 at halftime, but came back to fire in 57 second-half points and earn an 80-67 decision over the Braves. Dinnel did not play in the earlier encounter against the Cubs, but he certainly made his presence felt Tuesday as mino's slate to 6-7 for the season and brightened EC's Metropolitan Conference championship ambitions. Conference play will begin Jan. 5 for the Tribe when they trek to Harbor JC for a 3:30 p.m. contest.

Playing the top JC teams in the Southland, El Camino, has dropped two dukes to mighty Hancock and one decision, in a double overtime, to UCLA's undefeated frosh cagers. Karavas, always dependable, was magnificent in his playmaking role for ECC, while Schrader came off the bench to boost the Warrior fortunes. The victory brought Ca-also earned victories to lead the pace. Cerritos shook off stubborn Long Beach to gain a 77-67 nod, while Glendale was walking past Harbor, 68 to 58. El Camino holds a 54-40 pre-season win over Cerritos.

In other contests, East Los Angeles belted Ventura, 81 to 73, Bakersfield subdued Pasadena, 82-61; L. A. Valley knocked over Compton 96 to 79, and Fresno outlasted Santa Monica 79 to 67. With the halfway point in the season in sight, EC cage boss George Stanich has yet to decide on a starting five. Picking among 14 almost equally talented cagers, Stanich starts practically a different starting five in every contest.

Against Los Angeles, 11 players scored. El Camino 102: LACC 84. Dinnel 22, Ingleman 18, Wells 16, Karavas 16, Simmons 15, Holte 5, Camino 3, Thompson 3, McDade 5, El Camino 3.
