OVER-ALL YARD: First place, Mr. and Mrs. John Booth, 5401 Paseo de Pablo; second place, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Griffin, 4131 Paseo de las Tortugas.

A reception was held for the judges at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Petersen, 4914 Paseo de las Tortugas, following the contest.

THE HOLLYWOOD Riviera Homeowners Assn. sponsored its first annual Christmas Decoration Contest with judging taking place Thursday evening, Dec. 21. Lee Shade, chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Constance Thorensen and Richard Dodge. The winners were:

SWEEPSTAKES — First place, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Van Loosbrock, 511 Paseo de los Reyes; second place, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barnett, 539 Camino de Encanto.

MOST ORIGINAL — First place, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cag-liostro, 246 Via Linda Vista; second place, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Williams, 254 Via los Miradores.

BEST RELIGIOUS — First place, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chandler, 407 Camino de Encanto; second place, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Freude, 347 Via El Chico.

MOST EFFECTIVE USE OF LIGHTS—First place, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Saban, 506 Via los Miradores; second place, Mr.

and Mrs. Jack Locke, 145 Paseo de las Delicias.

A SPECIAL AWARD for Artistic Effect goes to Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. McClure, 433 Via la Selva.

The judges were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Katherman, 131 Via Sego, following their tour of the hillside. Presentations of scrolls to the winners will be made at the Homeowners Assn. meeting, Jan. 8, by Mayor Albert Isen.

THE HOLLYWOOD Riviera Sportsmans Club will hold its annual New Year's Eve Party Dec. 31 at the Women's Clubhouse in Redondo Beach. Cocktails will be served at 8 p.m. with a buffet dinner to follow. Entertainment and dancing are planned for 10 p.m. Mrs. Jay Freer is in charge of arrangements.

AFTERNOON sections of the Riviera Bridge Club met Monday, Dec. 11. Mrs. Sam Conte, club director, was hostess to Group I at her home, 231 Calle Mayor. Winners were Mrs. Bob Weinburg, first prize, and Mrs. Deveraux Martin, second.

Group 2 met at the home of Mrs. Bob Weinburg, 127 Via Alameda. Mrs. Weinburg won first prize and Mrs. Jack Hackman second.

Group 3 met at the home of Mrs. William Ertzman, 2609 Via Pacheco. Mrs. William Kazelskis won first prize and Mrs. Vickie Heilman won second prize.

THE HOLLYWOOD Riviera Rotary Club met for luncheon at the Plush Horse Restaurant Dec. 21 for a combined meeting with the International Airport Rotary Club. Speaker was Dr. Francis Bowman, professor of history at USC. With 1961 being the start of the four-year Civil War Centennial commemoration, Dr. Bowman spoke on California's contribution to the war. Jack Farber, program chairman, announces the speaker at today's luncheon meeting will be Perry Allen, KHJ radio commentator. The club's main project for 1962 will be its Youth Center building program. Anyone interested in information about the building program may contact Rotary President Jack Whiting, 1848 S. Elena, in the Riviera Village.

THE WOMEN'S Assn. of the Riviera Methodist Church had a Christmas luncheon meeting last Thursday, Dec. 21, at the church hall. A program of music was presented by violinist Mrs. Hans Holborn with Mrs. Doris Pettepiece at the piano. The Nite Circle was in charge of the luncheon and decorations.

THE RIVIERA Moose Lodge had a dinner party put on by the lodge wives Dec. 20 at the Knights of Columbus Hall in the Riviera Village. Members had a Christmas gift exchange. New Year's weekend, lodge members Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Muzik will be making a trip to the Indian reservation at Palaca, Ariz., with gifts of food and clothing. Anyone wishing to make donations may call the Muziks at FR 5-6918.

HOLIDAY GUESTS of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shade, 133 Via los Altos, are Cmdr. and Mrs. Don R. Williams and children of San Francisco. Cmdr. Williams has just recently returned from the South Pacific. His ship is the USS Haleakaula.

COL. AND MRS. John Mallett, former Rivierans who are well-remembered here, are visiting a number of friends on the hillside. They moved from the Riviera to England about 18 months ago and are now living on the desert at Edwards Air Force Base, looking forward to the day when they can move back here.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Sullivan, 445 Calle Mayor, must have set something of a record for the number of house guests over the holidays. At last count the number was 22 relatives for a happy family reunion.

THE TWILIGHTERS, a group of high schoolers from the Torrance-Redondo Religious Science Church, were led by their president, Gina Corazza, 547 Calle Mayor, in a caravan last weekend taking pellets of food to the animals in the burned-out area in the Bel Air Hills. The group made its headquarters at the Beverly Glen Fire Station. Teenagers taking part were Rhonda Hunter, Paul Caesar, JoAnn Berry, Alan Hay, and Bob Corazza.

TWO HOLLYWOOD Riviera artists are represented in the holiday showings at local art galleries. Mrs. Owen Dick, 400 Via la Selva, has an oil painting titled "Madonna and Child" on view at The Drawing Room in Torrance. Jerry Hibbard, 151 Paseo de la Concha, is showing his watercolors of Newport scenes at the new Peninsula Gallery in the Riviera Village.

MRS. JAMES (Bobbie) Mitchell, 106 Via los Altos, was the "Blue Fairy" helping Santa distribute gifts to over 100 children of club members at the Dianas Christmas party last week. Each child in turn brought a gift to place under the tree for a needy family. Mrs. Wallace Opstad directed the children's chorus, which sang Christmas carols and Wellington's children's class of the South Bay Players presented "Old King Cole's Christmas." Program chairman was Mrs. John Hanford.
