Goodrow-Ronhovdee Vows Read in Lutheran Rites

In a two o'clock ceremony at the First Lutheran Church recently, Miss Martha Frances Goodrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Goodrow, 1731 Iris Ave., exchanged marriage vows in a double ring ceremony with Ronald Ronhovdee, son of Mrs. and Mrs. John Ronhovdee, 1613 Acacia Ave.

Before a flower-banked altar, Rev. William A. Roleder officiated at the wedding. T. C. Allen, church organist, played nuptial background music and accompanied Miss Bonnie Kail, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

During the playing of the wedding march, Mr. Goodrow escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a Paris gown of white peau de soie with princess-front, touched with reemboirdered Alencon lace appliques. The lace and seed pearls ornamented the bodice and the skirt which was caught in a bustle effect and fell into a long flowing train. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white carnations, Queen Anne lace and white orchids clustered on a white Bible. A pearl princess crown secured the bridal veil.

Miss Darlene Torgeson was the maid of honor, wearing an emerald green sheath and carrying a bouquet of gold and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Kris Reed, Diane Shore, Donna Ritchie and Mrs. Sandra Wood. All wore green satin sheaths and each carried a bouquet of gold carnations.

John Ronhovdee was best man and ushers were David

Goodrow, Bill Williams, Larry Grisham and George Stoffel.

A reception was held in the Fireside room at the church. Mrs. Larry Grisham was in charge of the guest book and Misses Penelope Jonalee Boyd received gifts. Miss Darlene Ronning poured coffee and Miss Theata Bennett served punch.

A buffet supper reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for 100 friends and relatives. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Frances Serbousek, and her aunt, Mrs. Lester Johnson, both of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, were special guests. Other out-of-town guests were the bridegroom's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ronhovdee of Lake Tahoe.

The couple, both graduates of Torrance High school, toured northern California on their honeymoon, and are now at home in Torrance.

Entertain Houseguests

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hoppe, 620 Via los Miradores, Hollywood Riviera, have as their holiday guests Mr. and Mrs. James Miller of Palos Park, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cosgriff of Britt, Iowa.

Mrs. Hoppe visited the Millers and Cosgriffs on her return from a six-weeks trip in October and November which took her to Chicago and New York and a number of European ports. Her European tour aboard the USS Independence of the American Export Lines included Casablanca, Gibraltar, Palermo, Naples, and the island of Madeira. On the overland trip from Naples to Rome, Mrs. Hoppe visited the former hideout of Mussolini; then going on to Canne and Monte Carlo, she saw the Rainers' palace and tried her luck in the famous casino. A number of her Riviera friends are enjoying the French perfume she brought back.
