'Auntie Mame' in Unlimited Run at Torrance Theater

By BETTY SCHROEDER
Having completed the New Year's weekend playing to complete sell-outs, Chapel Theatre anticipates to continue pleasing audiences with their production of "Auntie Mame," starring Thelma Ledwidge, Torrance. New Year's Eve playgoers were further delighted at the theater party given at Smith Bros. Fish Shanty, which adjoins the theater property.

Those who are unfamiliar with the story of "Auntie Mame" may expect an evening of hilarity, as the comedy situations are unending. No sooner does one finish, than another riotous episode begins. The constant wit and spontaneous-type dialogue keep the audience in constant anticipation of each scene.

NOT ONLY is Auntie Mame unpredictable, astounding, colorful, and intriguing, but she is also warm, shrewd, and clever, proven by the manner in which she manipulates situations to affect the lives of all around her. Auntie Mame's wardrobe is both outlandish and the envy of all women, from her zany and colorful lounging pajamas to her daring mourning dress, dripping with jewels and furs. Don Gish, producer, has gone all out in outfitting Auntie Mame to fit all the occasions.

The actors get full enjoyment in portraying their various types of characters as is plainly seen during their performances from the early scenes between Auntie Mame (Thelma Ledwidge) and young Pat (Bob Poser, Gardena); Auntie Mame who frustrates Mr. Babcock (Denton Wable, Redondo Beach) to the point not to be endured.

The hilarious Shubert Theatre scene features Vera Charles (Jacque Smalley, Rolling Hills Estates); and the play is climaxed by the shrewd plotting of Auntie Mame to thwart

(thorne) from falling into the clutches of a snobbish family by introducing them to her weird assortment of friends, ranging from Lindsay (Jarl Victor, Palos Verdes Estates) who seemingly is the only sane member; Agnes Gooch (Libbie Stephens, Manhattan Beach) who is Mame's naive and backward secretary; to Ralph Devine (Ted Mulz) who plays the virile, open-shirt-type athlete.

CHAPEL THEATRE, located at 4164 Pacific Coast Hwy., will present "Auntie Mame" each weekend, Friday through Sunday at 8:30 p.m. for an unlimited engagement, it was announced by Director Bob McCaman.

Since there are many sell-outs for this production, it is suggested that reservations be made well in advance by calling Box Office, FR 2-9636 or FR 8-9017 evenings.

Republicans To Install Six Officers

Republican National Committeewoman Patricia Hitt will address the Jan. 23 meeting of the Palos Verdes Peninsula Club of Federated Republican Women at 9:45 a.m. at Palos Verdes Country Club.

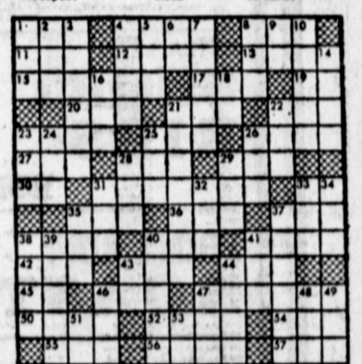

The 1962 club officers will be installed and the meeting will be followed by brunch. Reservations may be made by calling TE 2-1007 or TE 2-6596.

The new officers are: president, Mrs. John Kerr; first vice president and program chairman, Mrs. Read Johnson; second vice president and membership chairman, Mrs. Richard Rhodes; recording secretary, Mrs. Robert W. Cooper; corresponding secretary and bulletin, Mrs. Charles A. Lindsay; treasurer, Mrs. Ralph Blakey.
