Classes Are Sponsored by Medical Assistants' Unit

Harbor Medical Assistants Assn. will continue to sponsor classes at Gardena Adult School, 1301 W. 182nd St., Gardena. Dr. T. Durkin is instructor on medical terminology and Mrs. Jean Davis, president of the Harbor chapter, is the instructor on medical office procedure.

These courses embrace a variety of phases of office technique and anyone interested is asked to contact the Gardena Adult school for further information. January dinner meeting of the chapter will be held at the Wayfarers restaurant, 2230 Pacific Coast Hwy., in Lomita Jan. 16. Madonna E. Newberg, speaker, has chosen as her topic "Taxes."

Voting on the changing of the group's meeting date will also take place at this meeting. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Dorothy Rojo, Rojo.

California MAA will hold its board of trustees meeting at the Charter House in Anaheim, Jan. 20 and 21. Members desiring to make reservations may call Jean Davis.

Fashion Show Slated Today

A style show by eighth grade girls and a shop demonstration by upper grade boys is slated today at the monthly meeting of the Walteria School PTA.

"Citizens of the New Frontier" is the theme of the 7:30 p.m. program, with Home Economics teacher Mrs. Mary Locke and Shop Instructor Robert Flood in charge.

Mrs. Albert J. Belanger will direct the program, according to Mrs. Robert Schrauben, unit president. The group conducted a successful paper and rag drive on Tuesday.

Book Fair Is Scheduled By Area Family Service

Mrs. Lloyd C. Cook, 2806 Via Palomino, Palos Verdes Estates, recently met at Lomita Street School in Lomita with officers of Family Service of the Harbor Area to make final plans for a "Book Fair" and tea to be held in the Retail Clerks Hall in Harbor City. The benefit affair is scheduled for Sunday afternoon, March 4, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Cook emphasized, "Family Service is a community agency that helps families to help themselves." Agency headquarters are at 1427 S. Pacific, San Pedro, and Miss Henrietta Wilhelm is the social case worker.

Working with Mrs. Cook in planning the March 4 benefit are Mmes. Evalyn Sullivan, book displays and book sales; Homer Price and Richard Groverman, tickets; Arthur C. Akerson, refreshments; Jane Rye, decorations; and Dr. Thelma Barnes, publicity.

Assisting also will be Mrs. Edna Hagerty, Miss Frances Dastarac, and Mrs. Ruth Ervin, all members of the Advisory Council of Family Service of the Harbor Area, a Community Chest agency.

Polio Clinic At Serra is Slated Today

Serra Mothers Club, in conjunction with the March of Dimes, will hold a polio clinic on Thursday evening, Jan. 11, from 6:30 until 8:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria at 14830 S. Van Ness Ave. in Gardena. Attending physician will be Dr. Dean L. Brown.

Mrs. Stanley Rymza, health chairman, urges parents to avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining inoculations under the low-cost family plan.

Invite Public To Program

A special program, open to members of the community, will be presented by Hollypark, B'nai B'rith Women at their next regular meeting, Monday, Jan. 15, at Southwest Temple Beth Torah, 14725 Gramercy Place in Gardena. Starting at 8:30 p.m., the meeting will feature Mr. Pierce of Arnold White and Associates, interior decorators, who will speak and show slides. An open question-and-answer period will be followed by refreshments.

This is another in a continuing series of community interest programs presented by the Hollypark chapter. There is no admission charge.

Ann Landers

(Continued From Page 17) months ago when she had a black eye she left all the eye makeup off and her eyes looked lovely — even the shiner.

How can I get this across in a nice way? — J.I.

Dear J.D.: Begin with the "natural beauty" bit. Few women can resist this approach.

Skillful use of makeup can be an asset but the heavily made-up female looks as if she's trying to camouflage an old model under a fresh coat of paint.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm planning to be married in April. All my life I've dreamed of a story-book wedding and I want everything to go just right.

The three bridesmaids I've selected are tall and beautiful. My fiance selected three ushers. Two of them are handsome six footers. The third one is his 16-year-old brother who is a nice enough guy but he's a little runt about 5'4".

I told my fiance that I had nothing against his brother but his appearance would ruin the wedding procession. He seemed hurt but agreed to let me have my way.

I'm sure we can make it up to his brother later. My mother says I am wrong. What do you say? — APRIL SHOWERS

Dear April: You're not only wrong, but foolish. This "little runt" will be your brother-in-law long after the beautiful bridesmaids have forgotten who you are.

His presence cannot possibly ruin your wedding, but leaving him out can ruin your relationship with the entire family for years to come.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Have you read Ann Landers' new book "Since You Ask Me" is available at all book stores at $3.50. Copyright 1962, Field Enterprises, Inc.
