Radio Man Announces ECC Games

"They're off and running" declares Monty Ormsby, whose voice is so familiar to racing fans.

Ormsby, a sportscaster on the Jim Healy show, radio station KBIG, announced all El Camino College home football games last fall for taping and re-broadcast each Sunday morning following the game on FM station KAPP.

Ormsby's sportscasting career began during the summer of 1956, when he announced races for his grandfather as a summer job. Since then, he has had a position on station KWIZ, Orange county, and has done television commercials besides his present position on the Jim Healy Show.

An alumnus of El Camino College, Ormsby attended ECC in 1954 and 1955, and then attended briefly the USC School of Law.

Ormsby is married to an alumna of El Camino, nee Miss Sandy Gish.
