Junior Club To Sponsor Torrance Scout Center

Torrance Junior Woman's club voted to accept sponsorship of the Torrance Scout Center at its business meeting held Jan. 10 at the clubhouse, conducted by Mrs. Jack Dean, president.

Discussion of the sponsorship and administration of the building was led by Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, Junior youth chairman. Bill Walton of the Scout Center was present to answer questions from the members.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Thomas Burchfield, the club's next ways and means project will be a "Luncheon is Served" at the clubhouse on March 5.

It was also announced that Juniors will drive children from the Garden Valley School to the miniature golf course and that they will assist teachers in entertaining these children. A motion was made for Mrs. Edward Aiken to investigate obtaining a portable puppet stage to be given to the Torrance Recreation Department for use at all Torrance Centers.

Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, health chairman, announced that 68 cannisters had been placed in Torrance business houses for collections for the Muscular Dystrophy drive. The sum of $164.30 was received.

Volunteers to solicit for the annual YMCA drive were solicited. This project received its start at a breakfast on Jan. 9 attended by Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Joseph Boylan.

Two social events planned were a "fun night" for Jan. 24 at the club for members and prospective members, and a theatre party on Jan. 27 when the club will attend the Chapel Theatre in Torrance to see the current production "Auntie Mame."

Mrs. Ronald Forestal is chairman of the annual Vogue Sewing Contest now underway. Costumes will be modeled on Feb. 28 and the winner will compete in the district contest.

Mrs. Fred Smith, chairman, was assisted by Meses. DeLoy Stromme, Robert West and Donald French in serving refreshments.

AAUW Tea For Senior, Junior Girls

All Palos Verdes High School Senior and Junior girls will be honored Tuesday, Jan. 23, at a "College Preview" tea, sponsored by the American Association of University Women, Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch.

The tea, to be held from 3 to 4 p.m. in the high school multi-purpose room, will give girls an opportunity to talk individually with graduates of schools in which they are interested.

A large number of universities and colleges throughout the country will be represented, with emphasis on the many schools in California and the other western states. The various graduates will have catalogues and other up-to-date information available.

All arrangements are being made by the branch higher education study group, headed by Mrs. Joseph F. Goodwin. Assisting are Mrs. John C. King, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Hugh L. Hixon, Mrs. Donald P. Brough and other members of the study group committee.

Special buses will be provided to transport the girls home after the tea.

Neighbors Stage Block Dinner Party

The third annual holiday party staged by the neighbors in the 1700 block on Iris Avenue was a progressive dinner held this year on the Saturday before New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bolen and Mr. and Mrs. John Schwartz were co-hosts for the punch and hors d'oeuvres party at the Bolen home. The group then went to the Lou Briganti home for the main course. Dr. and Mrs. Al Posner were co-hosts with the Brigantes.

Hosts for the dessert were the Julius Meiers, Ed Hatters and the Richard Webbers.
