Auxiliary Lends Hand At Riviera Hospital

"There is no more rewarding work than aid to your fellow man and no finer place to give that aid than at Riviera Community Hospital" says Mrs. William A. Bailey, president of the Women's Auxiliary to Riviera Commun ity Hospital. "While a hospital can supply the finest of modern facilities and equip ment, it is only the added em phasis of community support and participation that makes a hospital truly great. One fine example of this support is the freely given time donated by the hospital's hard working Volunteers and Auxiliary members. These dedicated women of the community do much to give the hospital its warm human feeling" she con-
