Airman Third Class Rommel G. Armitage, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. ## Dance Class Being Offered

Beginning Monday night the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St., will present a new eight-week series of lessons in modern dance.

A new beginners class will concentrate on body tune-up, basic dance movement (in place and across the floor), and preparation for choreography (dance composition).

Students who attended earlier sessions which began in September will advance to an intermediate class which will focus on choreography as well as basic dance. If registration continues to increase, new classes will be formed to meet the need.

Both classes will be taught by Mrs. Jane Bosco. Mrs. Bosco believes dance to be potent therapy for "tired blood," housewife fatigue, and the widespread need to express oneself as well as to keep trim.

Fee is $6 for eight lessons, payable in advance either before or on the eve of the first session. The beginners class meets at 7 p.m. to 8; the intermediate class starts at 8 p.m. and ends at 9.
