

Harbor College Class of 78 To Be Graduated This Morning

Seventy-eight candidates for the Associate in Arts degree will be graduated from Harbor College today, President Wendell C. Black announced.

The Associate in Arts degree indicates that the candidates have successfully completed their two-year programs in the college and are prepared either to begin their vocational careers or to continue their studies as transfer students at other colleges and universities.

Dr. David Dingilian, counselor, and William McMasters, assistant dean of admissions and guidance, will confer the degrees at the conclusion of the commencement program which will follow the graduation breakfast this morning in the Student Center.

Norman Jacot, sponsor of the graduating class, will be the principal speaker. Dean of Student Personnel Glenn Gooder will also speak.

Graduates include:

From Torrance: Carl Marston Beatty, Joseph Ernest De-

From Lomita: Hubert Paul Barton, William Lloyd Cumiford, George Lee Harison, Harold E. Hastings, Robert Eugene Kukrall, Harry Morton Quinn, and Helen Severn Murphy.
