

Priest to Talk To Methodist Youth Tonight

Father Jerry Thompson of St. James Church in Redondo Beach will be guest speaker tonight at a meeting of the Torrance Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Next Sunday, the program will feature a movie entitled "One Love, Conflicting Faith." In other activities, the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship has begun a series of studies on the Methodist religion, its history, organization and theology. The group meets at 10 a.m. each Sunday at the church, Carson Street and El Prado Avenue.

Market Basket Checkers Competing for Ballots

Supermarket customers are invited to vote for their favorite checker-cashier this week at Market Basket stores, President Neal D. Ramsey has announced.

Market Basket's 53 stores are among thousands in the U.S. and Canada participating in the "Checker of the Year" contest sponsored by the Super Market Institute. Customers' ballots will help determine winners of many of the participating chains, it was said.

tesy, neatness, cheerfulness, speed and efficiency of the checker-cashier.

The company winner will receive a "Tilly" statuette (the Oscar of the food industry) plus a cash award and an opportunity to participate for the International Checker of the Year Award. Additional awards are provided for state and regional prize winners with the International Checker of the Year receiving a two-week tour of the Hawaiian Islands.

THE "Checker of the Year" campaign is sponsored annually by Super Market Institute (an association of food store operators) and the National Cash Register Co. as a tribute by the supermarket industry to its checker-cashiers. The international program fosters competition among some 25,000 checkers from 3,000 supermarkets throughout the United States and Canada.

In the 1961 contest Mrs. Mrs. Phylis Paxton, of Market Basket's Redlands store was selected as Pacific region "Checker of the Year." Regional winner honors were bestowed upon only 10 contestants from the United States and Canada.

In addition to customer balloting checkers will be judged by store managers and supervisors.
