Women's Fellowship Will Hear Consultant Lecture

Mrs. Margo Graham, color and design consultant for industry and a dedicated church worker, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church on Feb. 6. Mrs. C. H. Thompson, president, will be in charge.

President Hostess to Her Board

Mrs. Bert Whited, president of Xi Zeta Lambda Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, entertained the executive board and committee chairmen at a buffet luncheon meeting at her Gardena home on Jan. 5. Luncheon invitations and table decorations carried out the theme of the chapter study of foreign countries on "The Grand Tour." Council representative, Mrs. Richard Musto, reported on the recent South Bay Area Council meeting. Mrs. Raymond Millhouse was chosen to represent Xi Zeta Lambda at a South Bay Area Council ways and means committee meeting on Jan. 9.

A brunch will be served at 9:30 a.m., followed by the speaker who will be presented by Mrs. Dean Lougee, program chairman. Mrs. Graham will speak on "Color and Concentration," stressing that "Christians must be attractive and colorful to draw others."

Mrs. Ray Stewart, service chairman, has asked that the new all-occasion cards, Christmas cards and stationery be brought to this meeting so that it may be given to the California Home for use during the year.

Child care will be provided during the meeting. The annual CWF Sweetheart's Dinner will be held Feb. 9 in the Friendship Hall. Reservations may be made by calling the church office or Mrs. Dean Lougee, chairman.

On Feb. 15, the CWF will tour the All Peoples Church in Avalon under the direction of Mrs. Ray Stewart. All women will bring a sack lunch and meet at the church at 9:30 a.m. The group has assisted the church during the past year. Preschoolers are welcome.

Group Hears Book Review

Literature Section of the Torrance Woman's club was entertained last Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. McCune Beale, 1728 Manuel Ave.

Mrs. Godfrey Nelson, chairman, presented Mrs. Maureen Heaton of the Pro-Blue Bookshop at 22914 Crenshaw Blvd, who gave a timely book review.

During the discussion period, the group planned to check the books and magazines being offered for sale in supermarkets.

After the meeting, Mrs. Heaton, accompanied by the group, went to her bookshop where a tour was enjoyed.

Members attending were Mmes. Lillian Dunhouse, Rufus Sandstrom, Bertha Apsay, and Helen Warnock.
