El Camino Students Name Kuehn Of Torrance to Head Officers

Seven newly-elected student officials at El Camino College are from the Gardena-Torrance region, Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel, announced today.

Bob Kuehn, Torrance, was elected president of the Associated Students with Rel James of Gardena vice president.

Kuehn, former commissioner of rallies, is a business administration major, James, also a business administration major, will leave his office as president of the Associated Men Students to serve as vice president of the Associated Students. He is also president of the Circle K service club.

JOE PALIANI, a resident of Gardena, was elected commissioner of public relations. He served in this same capacity at Los Angeles Trade Tech and for two semesters was voted the most useful member of the Trade Tech student council. He is a former ECC commissioner of athletics.

Bob Newsome, a sociology major, was elected president of the Associated Men Students. Newsome also is from Gardena.

DENNIS JUDSON will serve as AMS vice-president during the coming semester with Jay Nerby serving as AMS secretary. Both are from Gardena.

Maureen Andrew, a resident of Torrance, was elected sophomore treasurer. She is majoring in English.

Also elected was Bill Hughes of Los Angeles. He will assume the office of commissioner of activities. A math major, he is a former commissioner of rallies.

SOCIOLOGY major Maureen Hayes, ECC Homecoming Queen, was elected to the post of commissioner of assemblies. Miss Hayes lives in Hawthorne.

Commissioner of Rallies Jerry Freeman, of Inglewood, a past freshman president, is majoring in political science.

Ronald Barnes, a police administration major of Hawthorne, was elected to the office of commissioner of athletics.

In runoff voting, Karen Kirby was elected sophomore president, Sheila Hendrickson to the post of freshman president and Karen Harelson as president of the Associated Women Students. All are from Inglewood.

RUNNING unopposed were AMS Treasurer Tom Anderson of Hawthorne, and Vicki Reed of Inglewood, elected sophomore vice president.

AWS President Marie Gantner of Manhattan Beach, AWS Secretary Nancy Easley of Inglewood and AWS Treasurer Rosemary La Fever, of Inglewood, also ran unopposed.

Elections were held in January.

All students elected will serve one semester terms. The office of commissioner of finance and commissioner of publications, held for one year, are by Wayne Hren and Wayne Overbeck, both of Manhattan Beach, respectively.

Good Teaching Conference Scheduled at South High

"Good Teaching" will be the theme of a conference to be held at South High School, Saturday, Feb. 24, for members of the Torrance teaching profession and guests. The caucus will provide an opportunity for the exchange of teaching ideas and practices.

Many major areas taught in Torrance classrooms will be among the practices demonstrated in art, mathematics, English, music, physical education, science, social studies, practical arts, reading, guidance, physical fitness, and classroom creativity.

This is the second annual Good Teaching Conference and promises to surpass in attendance and success the one held a year ago. Many inquiries and requests to attend the affair have been received from educators in other school districts and colleges in the area.

After the general meeting at South High School, beginning at 8:30 a.m. and keynoted by Dr. Myron C. Olson, professor of education at USC, teachers will attend various practice and demonstrations in classrooms at South High School and Calle Mayor Elementary School.

THE CONFERENCE, co-sponsored by the Torrance Educational Assn. and the Torrance Unified School District, has been planned by the following:

Mrs. Irma Wilson, vice president, TEA; Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools; James Armstrong, president, TEA;

Christopher to Speak

San Francisco's Mayor George Christopher, announced candidate for Lt. Governor, will address the South Bay Regional Board of Republican Associates on Thursday, Feb. 15, at a luncheon at the Palms in downtown Torrance. Area chairman George Heaton said the board "extends a cordial invitation to area residents to attend the luncheon."

Dr. A. N. Posner, assistant superintendent, education services; Dr. Carl Ahee, principal, Torrance High School; Dr. W. B. Magner Jr., curriculum consultant; Mrs. Gertrude B. Aldershof, curriculum consultant; Gerald Mays, TEPS chairman; and Mrs. Marie Swanson, secretary of committee.

Following the meetings, luncheon will be served in the South High School cafeteria. Dr. Hull is scheduled to speak at this time.

TO GET AWARD . . . Gary Emmett Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson, is congratulated by Rabbi Henri Front on his selection to receive the "Ner Tamid" (eternal light) award at services at Temple Menorah Friday evening. Gary will be the first Jewish Boy Scout in the area to receive the high religious award for scouting.
