

Susan Regan Selected Diana Teen-Age Miss

RECOGNITION PAID . . . Torrance High School PTA presented two Honorary Life memberships to local citizens for outstanding work with youth. Here, Mrs. James W. Cassidy, honorary life chairman, makes the awards to Leonard F. Kane center and Mrs. Paul Roberts.

Mrs. Frank Torino, youth chairman for the Redondo Beach Dianas, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Jr. membership, Marina district, today announced the winner of the "Teen-Age Miss" contest from the many entries of Redondo Union High and Bishop Montgomery Catholic High School.

The judges read the personal essays and interviewed the many students, and decided that Miss Susan Regan, senior at Bishop Montgomery High, met all the qualifications.

Miss Regan resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Regan and her two brothers in Hollywood Riviera. She has been in the upper 3rd of her class for the past seven semesters and has taken an active part in a number of the following school activities: worked in the school library; participated in musical and dramatic performances; elected chairman of Confraternity committee; awarded membership on the Quill and Scroll society for her work on the year book staff; active in choir and teen club.

Miss Regan has spent many hours visiting the underprivileged families in her parish. She is now preparing for the feminine lead as Katsusha in Gilbert and Sullivan's "Mikado." Her hobbies consist of reading, English and French, ballet, opera, playing piano, singing, designing and sewing, modeling and dramatics.

Miss Regan will graduate next June with a B average, and hopes to enter social work or the teaching profession after graduation from college.

Second place winner is Bonnie Kidman of Redondo Union High and third place went to Celina Dean of Bishop Montgomery High.

Judging in the contest were Mmes. Paul Taylor, Diana president; Al Lukes, Ted Kerwin and Frank Torino. A $25 savings bond and personal gifts were presented to Miss Regan at the Dianas March business meeting. Miss Regan will then enter the District contest on Feb. 26th at the Hawthorne clubhouse, as the Diana Teen-Age Miss entry.
