Mayor Lauds Awards Fete

"The Boy Scouts of America represent a front line of defense against those who would belittle and ridicule patriotism," observed Mayor Albert Isen of Torrance before an audience of scouts and parents attending a "Blue and Gold" banquet presented at the Sepulveda school Friday.

"Love of parents, your country and its flag, and God, vital words contained in the scouting oath," said the mayor, "are requirements absolutely necessary for the development of good citizenship. Our modern-day statesmen have not been able to improve on this foundation for the development of youth into responsible manhood."

The presentation of a charter to Earle Sumpter, commander of the sponsoring Bert S. Crossland American Legion Post, was witnessed by the more than 200 scouts and parents attending the "Blue and Gold" dinner. Paul Shaffer was general program chairman for the annual event.

Mayor Albert Isen appeared as a guest speaker for the banquet hosted by the parents of Cub Pack No. 996C and Troop No. 996.
