Bank Picks Winners at El Camino

Cash awards of $100 each will be presented to two El Camino College students at the Beverly Hills Hotel, March 23, when awards are made by when awards are made by tthe Bank of America. Named as El Camino College winners were Harlan A. Helvey, Man-were Harian A. Heivey, Man-hattan Beach, and Carolyn A. Curry, 18401 Haas, Torrance. Helvey is the winner of the award in banking and admin-istration studies, while Miss Curry is the recipient of the secretarial and clerical studies award award.

The bank will honor all win-ners from Southern California junior colleges at a banquet at the Beverly-Hilton.

A PLAQUE recording names of winners is displayed per-manently at each college. Stu-dents also receive honor cer-tificates at their school's annual awards banquet for win-ners of scholastic honors dur-ners of scholastic honors during the year.

The bank launched the program to encourage young people to better prepare for business careers. More than 60 colleg's throughout the state are participating.
