Maurine Bradford Weds B. F. Swilley on Feb. 17

Miss Maurine Bradford, daughter of Councilman and Mrs. George A. Bradford, 1323 Beech Ave., walked down the aisle of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at 3 o'clock on Sunday, Feb. 18, to exchange her wedding vows with Billy Frank Swilley. Mrs. Hortense Swilley, of Greenville, Miss., is the mother of the bridegroom.

Rev. Paul Cox stood before the flower banked altar to officiate at the marriage as Mrs. Dorothy Tully, organist, played a prelude of nuptial music. She also accompanied Carl McVicker who sang "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer."

On the arm of her father, the bride approached the altar wearing a waltz length white organza and lace gown. The fitted bodice was ornamented with lace insertion, a scoop neckline and three-quarter sleeves. The shoulder length illusion veil cascaded from a pearl crown. The bride wore a single strand of pearls which had belonged to her great-grandmother. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white roses and stephanotis encircling white orchids.

Mrs. Beverly Foreman was the matron of honor. She wore a waltz length dress of pale pink organza and carried a pink rosebud cascade.

Richard Bradford performed the duties of best man and ushers were Frank Bradford, Charles Montague Jr., and Arthur Montague.

A reception for the 200 guests was held at the church immediately following the ceremony. Approximately 25 family members and friends were entertained at a buffet supper at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Richard Bradford was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds are now at home at 1947 Locust, Apt. 5, Long Beach. They will leave April 14 to make their home in Mississippi. The bride was graduated from Torrance High School and Whittier College.

Her husband, a graduate of Greenville High School, will complete four years with the United States Navy in April.

Miss Judy Bishop was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Mary Smiley, Marge Coleman, and Judy Willmon. They wore identical gowns of azalea silk organza over taffeta and carried cascades of pink double camellias tied with cerise ribbons.

Little Kriss Davenport, in a floor length white nylon organdy gown, was the flower girl. She carried a white basket of rose petals tied with azalea ribbons.

Benny Sims stood as best man and ushers were Ron Hoxie, Rom Boleman, Tom Metzger, Larry Augilar, and Kenny Gervais.

A reception followed in Friendship Hall. Miss Carol Steembock was in charge of the bride's book.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Santa Barbara, Carmel, and San Francisco. They are now at home in Torrance.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School in June 1961. She is attending the UCLA Extension College for Dental Assistants.

Her husband is a graduate of Banning High School. He is assistant district manager for California Gasket and Washer Co.
