

South High Admits 148 to Honor Group

Upon completion of the fall semester, the South High Chapter of the California Scholarship Federation extended membership to 148 students. Eligibility for the honor society's membership is based on semester grades of "B" or better.

In addition to its regular membership, the chapter also extended the honor of Life Membership in the society to 23 seniors. Eligibility for Life Membership is based on the seniors, grades and membership throughout the entire high school career. Those attaining the honor of Life Membership include John Brooks, Lee Cooper, Jim Eckhart, Larry Gunther, Lloyd Lessor, Mike Keyes, Rick Malory, Ron Peacock, Frank Sieh, and Charles Smith. Others are Rosemary Balow, Sharon Bergstrom, Yvonne Boggio, Ann Coulter, Judy Dunn, Lela Greene, Irene Hanson, Sonia Jamison, Gini Matute, Carolyn Mohr, Sandra Snavely, Susan Ward, and Belinda Worthen.

Dear Mary Carter:

My husband, George, is a lazy good-for-nothing who sprawls all over the living room in his undershirt every day, drinking beer out of cans and watching the television.

Our ceilings are a mess from beer squirting on them every time he opens a can, and the walls are in pretty bad shape, too, where they get hit by the empties he tosses away.

I've asked George time and again to do something about cleaning up the place, but he just snarls at me.

What am I going to do?
Mrs. U. G. H.

Dear Mrs. U. G. H.:

First, get rid of George.

Then visit your nearest Mary Carter Paint Store and buy enough of my Interior Roll-Latex paint to do just half your living room. That's right—ask the man for only half as much Mary Carter paint as you'll need, and pay him for only half as much as you need. He'll give you the rest free, at no extra cost!

George may not be any bargain, but every paint sale is a real discount bargain at my famous stores. You'll find Roll-Latex easy to apply with a brush or roller; it dries in 20 minutes and it has no painty odor.

You can paint that living room yourself, so who needs George?

Mary Carter

P. S.

If you ever decide to take George back, you'll be happy to know Mary Carter Interior Roll-Latex paint is washable, too!
