

TARTAR RALLY EDGES KNIGHTS

Tuning up for its Pioneer League baseball opener Tuesday against Lawndale, Torrance bashed across a pair of runs in the seventh frame on a single by Bob Clark to take a 2-0 decision from El Camino Real League foe Bishop Montgomery.

Locked in a scoreless pitchers' duel for more than six frames on Tuesday Clark turned the battle towards the Tartars by singling in Steve McGuire and Ernie Clayton. McGuire doubled into left field with one out in the final seventh. Clayton then beat out an infield single. Bob Stout worked a base on balls and Mike Blankenship went down swinging to give the Tartars two away and set the stage for Clark's game-winning blast.

BLANKENSHIP twirled the entire contest for Torrance.

EC Spikers Meet Gades In Loop Tilt

Spikes of El Camino College trackmen will test out the Bakersfield College oval when the Warriors take on the favored Renegade cindermen tomorrow at 2:30 p.m.

In the Thirteenth Annual East Los Angeles Relays for Metropolitan Conference members, Valley College trackmen literally ran away with first place honors, scoring 40 points. Second place Bakersfield totaled 34 points. Third was Long Beach with 23, followed by East Los Angeles with 22, El Camino with 21, San Diego with 20, Santa Monica with 10, and Harbor with 5.

Four men from each team participated in each running event, the time of each man was totaled and the team with the best time was the winner.

pitching a tremendous game despite the wind and the cold. Blankenship struck out five men and issued only a pair of free passes, giving up three hits to the pesky, determined Knight nine.

Two Bishop Montgomery chuckers gave up six hits to the Tartars, walking only two and whiffing six.

DESPITE THE cold, Montgomery played an errorless ball game, while Torrance was clumsy, committing three errors.

Lawndale affords Torrance its first look at Pioneer League opposition when the Cardinals host the opening circuit contest at 3 p.m. on Tuesday.

TORRANCE will bring a 2-0-2 record into the contest. The Tartars have dealt defeats to Bay League member Mira Costa and Bishop Montgomery.

While Torrance has not dropped a contest, South and Centennial have both battled the Tartars to deadlocks.

Don Coil will probably open on the mound for Torrance against the Cardinals.
