

Health District Honors Volunteers at Luncheon

The volunteers who worked in the clinics and conferences of the Torrance Health District of the Los Angeles County Health Department were recognized at the March 21 Health Leadership Luncheon held at the Biltmore Hotel, Los Angeles.

More than 1,200 hours were given last year in support of the health services of the Torrance Health District, according to Dr. E. W. Kendrick, district health officer.

MRS. LEE CLOTWORTHY, volunteer chairman for the Torrance Junior Women's Club, represented the volunteers from the Torrance Health District at the luncheon. She accepted the awards which were given in recognition of 500 or more hours of volunteer service in community health. Certificates of appreciation were given to the Torrance Junior Women's Club, the Sandpipers of Manhattan Beach and the American Martyrs Parochial School Mother's Club of Manhattan Beach.

Recognition for 100 hours of volunteer service were given to Mmes. Martra Davis, 604 Via Gorrion, Palos Verdes Estates; Dorothy Jungkind, 268 Rocky Point Rd., Palos Verdes Estates; Sara Konstan, 2317 Gaucho Dr., Rolling Hills; St. Francis Episcopal Church and the Amestoy PTA of Gardena.

THE HEALTH Leadership Luncheon was part of the week-long state-wide observance of Community Health Week, March 18-24. Dr. John Porterfield, Deputy Surgeon General, United States Public Health Service, was the luncheon speaker. His topic was "Using Our Total Resources for Total Health."

Promoted by Health Dept.

The promotion of Mrs. Mary G. Black to the position of Supervising Public Health Nurse for the Torrance Health District of the Los Angeles County Health Department was announced by Dr. E. W. Kendrick, district health officer. Mrs. Black will take the place of Mrs. Marion Mayne who was transferred to a special study which will investigate the care given in nursing homes. The new supervisor was assigned to the Torrance District on March 12. She was senior public health nurse at the East Los Angeles and the San Antonio Health Districts of the County Health Department before coming to Torrance. Mrs. Black obtained her Bachelor of Science degree in Public Health Nursing from UCLA and her nurse's training in Wichita, Kan.

Cub Scout Pack 761-C

The new officers of the Mothers Club, of Cub Scout Pack 761-C, who were installed at the Pack's Blue and Gold Dinner held in January, took over their new duties Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Stewart Angus of Faysmith Avenue.

The new officers are Mrs. Leo Ray, president; Mrs. George Rotolo, vice president; Mrs. Lee Ivey, recording secretary; Mrs. Stewart Angus, treasurer; Mrs. Curtis Lee, ways and means; Mrs. George Ittner, hospitality, and Mrs. Gordon Nordquist, press chairman.

Refreshments were served through the courtesy of Mrs. Stewart Angus and Mrs. Hitoshi Fujii, who provided a special cake to honor the outgoing and incoming presidents.

The new officers are looking forward to an active year.

Explorer Post 753-X

Explorer Post 753-X recently placed fourth in the Explorer Bowling Tournament in the Bowl-O-Drome, for the Harbor District.

In being one of the four top teams, they had the right to play in the district finals at the Sports, Travel and Vacation Show at the Los Angeles Sports Arena, March 4.

Those members traveling to the finals were Edward Brady, Thomas Brady, Daniel Lacoce, Walter Miller, and Lawrence Till. One other member of the team, Steven Price, was not present.

Post activities coming up include a canoe trip down the Colorado River during Easter vacation, and a Court of Honor.

The post is under the leadership of Jack Till, Patrick Brady and Edward Brady.

Pastor Wells To Continue Talk Series

The Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church of Lomita will hear another message in the current series of messages, "These Events Changed the World."

The message for Sunday at the 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. services will be "Good Advice for the Good Man." This sermon by the pastor, Robert A. Wells, is a series on events from the life of Christ.

"On this occasion Jesus dealt with one of the best men mentioned in the Bible. Those who have listened to His council have found it made life worth living," Mr. Wells will state.

The church will observe the Ordinance of Baptism at the 8:30 p.m. worship service. The month of March has been observed as "Operation Contact." The fourth in a series of visitation days will be Thursday, March 29.
